Martie Jacobs, eienaar van Marionette School of Modelling, is oorlede op Sondag 9 Januarie. Sy was 'n gesiene vrou in die gemeenskap wat vir 53 jaar modelklasse aangebied het en spog met top modelle wat deur haar hande touwys gemaak is. Haar vriendin Hanlery Bouwer beskryf haar as 'n plat op die aarde vriendin. "Sy was die mooiste dame. Altyd stylvol, en altyd goed vir almal. Sy het baie tot die modelwêreld bygedra en het die glansryke kompetisies by Sun City aangebied. Sy het modelle gehelp om nie net in Suid Afrika goed te doen nie, maar wel ook oorsee. Martie was 'n dame met 'n hart van goud en 'n fantastiese sin vir humor – 'n regte hartsmens. "Martie het so baie mense se harte aangeraak, so baie mense is lief vir haar. Ek kan regtig 'n opstel skryf oor hierdie legende in die modelbedryf. "Mart, jy los my met 'n groot leemte in my hart, maar ek is dankbaar dat ons paaië gekruis het 35 jaar gelede, toe ek my modelle van Johannesburg na Sun City toe gebring het. Ek was gesien om te kon sê jy was my maatjie," aldus Hanlery. Vir haar twee seuns, skoondogters en vyf kleinkinders was Martie iemand op wie hulle altyd kon staatmaak, iemand wat altyd uitgehelp het waar sy kon. Niks was vir haar te veel nie. 9-YEAR-OLD BOY DROWNS

NSRI' Hartbeespoort Dam crew were dispatched to search for the missing child.

Madikwe – Enjoying what was left of their school holiday, a bunch of kids from Madikwe (about 90km from Rustenburg) went for a swim in a stream flowing into the Tholwane River on Friday 7 January. While most of the kids just played on the riverbank, a 9-year-old boy who played in the water, was swept downstream by the strong current, due to recent rains. His friends immediately sounded the alarm. The Madikwe police, Hartbeespoort Dam's National Sea Rescue Institute (NSRI), and the Uitkyk village Strategic Rescue Unit (SRU) attended the scene. They braved the Tholwane River but the search had to be called off, only to resume the following morning as it was getting too dark to continue. The search was extended downstream, where the Tholwane River flows into the Madikwe Dam. The search efforts were hampered by the swollen river and the remote and barely accessible terrain. Community members also joined the search operation. At approximately 17h30, members of the Police Air Wing spotted the boy on the riverbank, about 8 kilometres downstream from where the children were swimming. Emergency personnel were sent in, who found that the child died. "A judicial inquest into the cause of death is underway," said Rustenburg Police captain Elsabé Augoustides. The body of the boy was sent to the Government Health Forensic Pathology Services. We extend our sincerest condolences to the child's family and friends.

N4 claims four lives

ER24 and Trauma Rescue paramedics were on scene to assist the injured.

MEC for Community Safety and Transport Management for the North West, Sello Lehari thanked emergency service personnel and law enforcement agencies who attended to the scene. He reached out to the loved ones of the deceased and said: "I pray that you are strengthened in this tough time. Please accept my sincere condolences."

Rustenburg – Four people died following a collision involving three vehicles along the N4 highway between Rustenburg Mall and the Kroondal offramp on Saturday 8 January. A culpable homicide case has been opened. Says ER24 spokesperson Russel Meiring: "ER24 and other emergency services arrived at 20h25 to find two vehicles on the road and a third in the veld. Upon closer inspection, medics found a man and a woman lying trapped and motionless inside the small bakkie, trapped. Unfortunately, both had already succumbed to their injuries." Trauma Rescue general manager Wentzel Dippenaar told Platinum Weekly: "Besides the two in the Nissan NP200 bakkie, Trauma Rescue and paramedics on scene were provided with advanced life support interventions and were transported to hospital." Sadly, two more people involved in this accident succumbed to their injuries in hospital, bringing the total to four lives lost. We extend our sincerest condolences to the loved ones of the deceased.

NEWBORN BABY AND TWO PEOPLE KILLED ON N4

Rustenburg – Three people, including a newborn baby, died in an accident on Monday 10 January. A Toyota bakkie and a truck collided on the N4 near the Buffelspoort exit. Says ER24 general manager Marchant Jacobs: "The bakkie was heading towards Rustenburg and the truck travelled in the opposite direction." A culpable homicide case is being investigated. The Department of Community Safety and Transport Management MEC Sello Lehari appealed to road users to obey the rules of the road and extended his heartfelt condolences to the family and friends of the deceased.

Three lives were lost after a truck and bakkie collided.

Community member help to get murder suspect arrested

Mogwase – A 27-year-old murder suspect was arrested in Mogwase while boarding a taxi to Rustenburg on Friday 17 December.

He was arrested for allegedly stabbing a man with a knife in the neck during a fight. The victim succumbed to his wounds and was certified dead upon arrival at a local hospital.

Police spokesperson lieutenant colonel Amanda Funani said the suspect, his girlfriend and the victim were spotted at a local tavern the night before until the early morning hours of 17 December.

Said Funani: “The trio left the tavern and went to the suspect’s house where a fight allegedly ensued between the victim and the suspect. During the fight, the suspect reportedly drew a knife and stabbed the victim, after which he fled the scene with his girlfriend.”

Funani added that the victim was seen by a passer-by who alerted the police.

“We managed to trace the suspect and his girlfriend as they were about to board a taxi to Rustenburg,” Funani concluded. Investigations continue.

MAN RAPES WIFE AFTER DOUSING HER IN PETROL...?

Mogwase – A 41-year-old man accused of assaulting and strangling his wife with a rope and then pouring petrol on her before raping her, appeared before the Mogwase Magistrates’ Court for a third time on Monday 10 January. Oupa Nkele faces charges of assault with grievous bodily harm and rape.

Nkele is expected back in the same court on Monday 17 January after his Legal Aid attorney requested a postponement to consult with him. NPA spokesperson Henry Mamothame said the state has established that the accused collected his wife from her parents’ home on 29 December after she had agreed to meet with him to discuss urgent personal matters. “He then drove towards a local mall but changed direction and went to their house in Lerome village near Mogwase,” Mamothame said.

“An argument reportedly ensued after the pair arrived at their home. Nkele allegedly assaulted and strangled his wife with a rope, doused her with petrol before eventually raping her. He then allegedly forced her into his car and drove off. His wife managed to unlock her car door and jumped from the moving vehicle to escape from him,” he added. Mamothame said the woman received assistance from a concerned member of the community who accompanied her to the police station to lay charges.

Nkele was arrested the following day.

WOMAN CONFESSES TO HIRING HITMEN TO KILL FAMILY

Brits – A woman who confessed to being the mastermind of a hit on her parents and siblings six years ago, will appear before the Brits Magistrates’ Court on Thursday 13 January. The woman, who allegedly committed the crime in December 2016 while she was still 16 years old, will appear before the court with the two alleged hitmen. National Prosecuting Authority (NPA) spokesperson Lumka Mahanjana told Platinum Weekly that the trio will apply for bail during their appearance.

Police spokesperson lieutenant colonel Amanda Funani said the arrests were made in December 2021 after the woman went to Mmakau police station and admitted to killing her family members.

On that fateful day, Tuesday 6 December 2016...

According to the 2016 police report, the mastermind suspect, then 16 years old, went outside to dispose of the water she used to wash dishes. She apparently heard gunshots and run inside when she also got shot – in the thigh. The suspects fled the scene with the family’s car, a Chrysler Voyager. The daughter then alerted neighbours who called the police.

• Four murders were committed that day.

The lifeless bodies of her father (the then 42-year-old police officer), his 40-year-old wife, their 18-year-old pregnant daughter as well as a six-year-old boy were all found lying in a pool of blood. The woman and the two alleged hitmen – both aged 23 – are facing five counts of murder and armed robbery.

Suicide to evade murder trial?

Rustenburg – A 41-year-old man accused of stabbing and killing his wife’s friend, attempted to take his own life by drinking poison. Simphiwe Nqakaqa appeared before the Rustenburg Magistrates’ Court on Wednesday 22 December on charges of murder.

Police spokesperson lieutenant colonel Amanda Funani said the suspect’s wife and her friend allegedly found him trying to commit suicide by drinking poison on 11 December 2021.

“The wife and the friend questioned the accused about drinking the poison. Out of anger, the accused allegedly stabbed his wife’s 31-year-old friend with a knife in the upper body,” Funani said. “The victim was transported to a local hospital where she was certified dead.”

Nqakaqa was also transported to hospital after he drank even more poison.

TIED-UP BABY FOUND ON N12

Stilfontein – The body of a 13-day-old baby boy was discovered along the N12 road near Stilfontein outside Klerksdorp on Saturday 1 January. The body, dressed in grey leggings, a white vest and covered with a cloth, was found with his hands and legs tied tightly with a plastic bag. A passing motorist made the gruesome discovery and alerted the police.

According to police spokesperson captain Aafje Botma: “The baby boy’s body had bruises all over.” Botma urged community members to value the life of infants and to consider approaching social services for help instead of dumping babies.

Please come forward if you have any information on this case. If so, please contact Stilfontein detective commander lieutenant colonel Johannes Mokgosi on 082 416 1303 or SAPS Crime Stop on: 08600 10111.

R50,000 reward: Help find Tlotso

Missing 8-year-old Tlotso Mogomotsi Moilwe.

Moruleng – The Segakwaneng Village near Moruleng outside Rustenburg is in shock after the disappearance of the 8-year-old Tlotso Mogomotsi Moilwe from Mogwase on Saturday 25 December 2021. Tlotso was spending his Christmas day playing with friends when he went missing. He was last seen at around 15:00 wearing a camouflage short, with a black t-shirt and grey slippers. According to police spokesperson colonel Adèle Myburgh a 28-year-old suspect, Bridget Bojosi, was arrested but all efforts by police search and rescue to locate the boy has yielded no results. Bridget appeared before the Mogwase Magistrates’ Court on 6 January on a charge of kidnapping. She was remanded in custody until her next court appearance on Thursday, 13 January.

A R50,000 reward was issued for anyone who may have information that can lead to the arrest and conviction of a perpetrator/s, involved in the disappearance.

Anyone with information is requested to contact the investigating officer, sergeant Vincent Mzinyathi on 082 416 3197 or SAPS Crime Stop number on 08600 10111. Anonymous tip-offs can also be communicated via My SAPS App.

BUSINESS ROBBERY LANDS MAN IN HOT WATER

Brits – A 35-year-old man accused of robbing a retail store in Mooinooi on 19 December 2021 appeared before the Brits Magistrates’ Court on Friday 7 January. Collet Edward Ndlovu was arrested after he and seven other suspects disarmed two police officers who had walked in by chance while the armed robbery was in progress. Police spokesperson captain Aafje Botma said Ndlovu and the other suspects, who are yet to be arrested, stand accused of business robbery as well as two counts of robbery with firearms. National Prosecuting Authority (NPA) spokesperson Lumka Mahanjana said Ndlovu will make another appearance in court on Thursday 13 January.

After disarming the cops, the suspects looted an undisclosed amount of cash and fled the scene in two white Toyota Corolla vehicles.

Said Botma: “A law abiding citizen tipped off police and gave them descriptions of the getaway cars. The Brits Police, who were rushing to back up their counterparts in Moonooi, spotted the suspects’ vehicles along the N4 towards Brits. A high-speed chase ensued. The suspects abandoned their vehicles and fled into the bushes.”

However, the police caught up with the Ndlovu. “Investigations into the matter, including the tracing of the remaining suspects, is underway,” Botma said.

CATTLE RAIDED ON SWARTKLIP FARM

Swartklip/ Rustenburg – Apparently, about 80% of all livestock theft in South Africa involves some form of organised crime. It costs the country billions of rand each year, is detrimental to our economy and has crippled many a farmer. What is a farmer to do if he loses R500,000 worth of livestock? Not to mention the hard work, love and time that went into their breeding and upkeep.

Late on Sunday 9 January or early on Monday morning, 10 January, stock thieves gained access to the Kameelhoek farm located next to a mine in Swartklip. Twenty calves aged 2-6 months, and nine cows were stolen.

Gustav du Toit breeds pedigree Simmentalers. His cattle, which are all registered, were marked with yellow ear-tags and branded BH, GH, and CE – except for the really young calves. He lost an estimated R500,000 worth of livestock. Local authorities, community crime fighters and trackers were summoned to assist with the search. Tracks were followed to an informal settlement behind the mine, in Spitskop, but to no avail. No vehicle tracks could be found. A helicopter was also used in the search.

A farmhand discovered the cut fence and as word of the stolen livestock spread on social media, two neighbouring farmers also reported that their fences were cut.

Gustav du Toit, from Rustenburg, opened a case at the Northam police station. He also informed auction houses. Besides his cattle, Gustav has not yet determined if any of his game is missing. In an interview with Gustav’s mother, Elsabe Heuer said: “Over the past five years, we poured our blood, sweat and tears into our farm. It hurts to hear the cows calling for their calves.”

Cows are remarkable creatures. To most people, they represent nothing but food products, but it turns out, they love being mothers and have remarkable maternal instincts. Research show that cattle are intelligent animals with deep cognitive and emotional lives.

If you have any information that can help track the stolen livestock, please contact:

- Elsabe Heuer: 082 773 7196

Do you think a child psychologist will do a better job at raising your child than you?

No. As a parent, I know more about my child than anyone else does. So, I'll definitely do a better job.
Joseph Bangan

No. A psychologist will only see the child for a short time, maybe an hour in a single day... Whereas parents spend loads of time with their kids.

PROVERBS 16 VERSE 1 - 13

¹The preparations of the heart belong to man, But the answer of the tongue is from the LORD. ²All the ways of a man are pure in his own eyes, But the LORD weighs the spirits. ³Commit your works to the LORD, And your thoughts will be established. ⁴The LORD has made all for Himself, Yes, even the wicked for the day of doom. ⁵Everyone proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD; Though they join forces, none will go unpunished. ⁶In mercy and truth Atonement is provided for iniquity; And by the fear of the LORD one departs from evil. ⁷When a man's ways please the LORD, He makes even his enemies to be at peace with him. ⁸Better is a little with righteousness, Than vast revenues without justice. ⁹A man's heart plans his way, But the LORD directs his steps. ¹⁰Divination is on the lips of the king; His mouth must not transgress in judgment. ¹¹Honest weights and scales are the LORD's; All the weights in the bag are His work. ¹²It is an abomination for kings to commit wickedness, For a throne is established by righteousness. ¹³Righteous lips are the delight of kings,

‘How I lost R2,300 at the ATM’

Rustenburg – On Saturday 8 January, Rustenburg resident Corinne du Plessis fell victim to ATM card fraud and was left R2,300 poorer. She went to draw cash at a Capitec ATM at Safari Gardens Shopping Centre. When she got to the ATM, there was a man who said that she could use the ATM before him. ‘You can go first, I will take a while as I need to make deposits’, he said. ‘I thanked him and inserted my card and pressed in my pin code,’ Corinne said in an interview with Platinum Weekly. ‘The pin didn’t register. As I tried to cancel the transaction to get my card back, the man was suddenly right behind me and said: ‘Sometimes this machine is difficult, you have to press the keys harder’. So, she tried again. ‘The moment I entered my pin, the man pushed over my shoulder and pressed a button – I think the cashless service,’ Corinne said. ‘I was startled! But I immediately pressed ‘cancel’ multiple times. The machine did not return my card.’ An eyewitness saw her distress and urged her to immediately cancel her card at the bank. While she was talking to the bank on her phone, an SMS came through showing that an amount of R2,300 was withdrawn from her account. Highly upset, she headed back to work and contacted the bank from there. ‘I went to the bank the following day, got a new card and a new pin code,’ Corinne confirmed. ‘A representative at Capitec Bank informed me that there will be camera footage, and if I want to, I could open a case at the police station and that I should request that they get a copy of the footage to investigate. Oh, what a nightmare!’ Platinum Weekly reached out to Capitec Bank who confirmed the incident but could give no additional information at the time of going to press.

Small town criminals

Derby – Home burglaries are on the increase in Derby. The first of many for 2022 took place on Saturday 1 January when a criminal managed to break into a house helping himself to the family’s cell phones and a tablet before being spotted and fleeing the scene. A few days later he broke into another house on the same property where he looted jewellery. In another incident on 9 January, a couple woke up to the sound of a lamp falling off a table. They went to investigate and initially thought they must have forgotten to close the window. It was almost light outside, and they went back to bed only to later discover that a watch and knife was missing. They checked their security cameras and saw that the man attempted to break in when he knocked the lamp over, he fled briefly only to return for the loot.

• Later that evening various houses in the area were also robbed and one man brutally assaulted.

Derby neighbourhood watch member Peet Els said: ‘Our neighbourhood watch has been exceptionally busy. There have been burglaries every night since the start of the new year... And most of our members still have to work the following day. We would like to urge the community to be alert.’

This criminal was caught on camera trying to break into a house.

He said that criminals don’t even hide under the cover of dark of night anymore and that they even try their luck during the day. ‘Because we don’t have a police station here, criminals wreak havoc. It’s only the neighbourhood watches that can keep a watchful eye and we need more people from the community to get involved,’ he said.

SAVF thanks you!

Clothes hanging neatly at the SAVF Rustenburg store.

Rustenburg – SAVF Rustenburg revamped their second-hand store and officially opened its doors again on Monday 3 January.

To make this project a success, they rely on donations from the community. Rustenburg Skool vir Buitengewone Onderwys came to the table and donated a much-needed railing so that the clothes could be hanged to make it easier for clients to go through the wide selection instead of riffling through boxes. They also assisted in installing the railing so SAVF volunteers could just start unpacking.

Dorah Modiokoane also made a big donation of clothes, shoes and toys that can now be sold to raise funds to assist the community.

The SAVF Rustenburg would like to extend their gratitude to Dorah and Rustenburg Skool vir Buitengewone Onderwys for these donations.

For more information, visit Rustenburg SAVF at 212A Kruger Street, Rustenburg or contact 014 592 8568.

A CLOUDY START TO THE YEAR

Hartebeespoort Dam – While talks of a new aquatic weed that threatens to suffocate Hartbeespoort Dam is in the spotlight, residents and tourists enjoyed the views of the Hartebeespoort Dam sluices that were opened this weekend.

South Africa's recent rainfall was widespread and many towns were flooded.

When the Crocodile River (West) crosses into the North West, it feeds two large dams in the river; the Hartbeespoort Dam and Roodekoppies Dam. On 10 January, the Department of Water and Sanitation measured Hartbeespoort Dam at 96.5% full, while all North West dams, on average, are 75% full.

Did you know?

After the news that the Hartebeespoort Dam would never fully be rid of the invasive water hyacinth, a new pesky species of plant has proven to be equally difficult to control. According to Invasive Species South Africa (ISSA), the small salvinia (Salvinia minima) officially became Hartebeespoort Dam's 'secondary invasion' aquatic weed in May 2021.

Featuring a fresh, modern design and innovative technological advancements, Old Mutual's new office space, unveiled on 3 December 2021, has been redesigned with the goal of helping their customers achieve their goals.

It's more than a move, it's a game-changer

Rustenburg – Lifestyle Square, conveniently located in the busy Beyers Naude Drive, is proud to announce that an Old Mutual branch now forms part of their shopping mall.

Grade 1 learners Eatile, Joëlle, Micheal and Leah are excited to start their school year!

BACK TO SCHOOL!

It was a huff and a puff to get all the learners back together again, but Wednesday 12 January marked the return of thousands of learners to their school desks. Due to Covid-19 restrictions, only five (5) inland provinces will be receiving learners from Grade R to Grade 12. The five provinces include the Free State, Gauteng, Limpopo, Mpumalanga, and the North West. Learners of the four (4) coastal provinces – Eastern Cape, KwaZulu-Natal, Northern Cape and the Western Cape, will go back to school only next week. In Gauteng, there are a lot of learners who are yet to be placed in schools... On 11 January, Minister of Basic Education, Angie Motshekga, confirmed that no Covid-19 vaccines will be administered to learners at schools – at this point in time.
