A sad slow death for waterbuck calf

Rustenburg – A visitor to Kgaswane Nature Reserve on Saturday 5 February, came across a disturbing scene of a waterbuck calf that looked like its tail had been cut off. When they found the calf, it was barely alive. She attempted to call the reception, but were unsuccessful because of the bad signal in the park. Park officials eventually came to collect the calf.

She reached out to Platinum Weekly to raise her concerns. We then reached out to Kgaswane Nature Reserve to find out exactly what happened.

North West Parks Board acting chief conservation officer Pieter Nel explained that at around 05:30 the ranger was on his way to drop off the gate guards. He then noticed the calf and its mother on the lawn. The calf appeared weak, and it looked like predators had already started eating it from behind.

After dropping off the guards, the ranger returned to the calf but when he arrived, the cow had already left. He took the calf for medical attention, but it died along the way. Pieter consulted with the ranger who found the calf as well as Phineas Phago, a ranger who has more than 30 years of experience at Kgaswane on how something like this could have happened.

They speculated that the calf might have been sick or weak or was attacked by foxes. "The possibility of leopard or caracal is excluded because they kill immediately. It could not have been dogs either, as there where no other injuries to the calf. Dogs grab and pick where they can find a bite to eat," Pieter added.

He confirmed that because it was a 'natural' death it was only recorded in the mortality register and was not reported on any further.

A dying waterbuck calf was spotted by day visitors.

Bakkie crashed through wall at Rusoord

Rustenburg – Shortly before midnight on Thursday evening 3 February, a Toyota Hilux crashed through the boundary wall of Rustenburg Rusoord. "It sounded like a plane landed on our roof," says Marietjie van Zyl who stays at Rustenburg Rusoord with her grandson Christiaan Goosen. Goosen told Platinum Weekly that he at first thought that it was a tree that fell on the wall: "When I went outside, I saw that it was a bakkie that went through the wall, about 5 metres from my grandmother's bedroom. If that wall didn't stop the bakkie, it would have gone right through her bedroom wall."

According to preliminary reports, the bakkie swerved off the road, flattened a signboard and scraped past two trees before crashing through the wall. Of the three occupants, the driver and one of the passengers sustained serious injuries, while the other (female) passenger passed away at the scene.

Being right across the street from the Job Shimankana Tabane hospital, an ambulance arrived at the scene within minutes.

We extend our sincerest condolences to the friends of family of the deceased.

The Toyota Hilux plunged through the wall at the back of Rustenburg Rusoord.

BABY RAPED

THE ACTIONS OF A WARPED HUMAN BEING

Rustenburg – A 21-month-old baby, the pride and joy of her parents, was raped in Rustenburg.

Like any other morning, the little girl was dropped off at the crèche, yet the lives of this family were changed forever on Tuesday 1 February. The father of the baby picked her up at school. It was only when the mother changed her nappy when she noticed that something was seriously wrong.

They immediately took her to their doctor, who confirmed that the baby was raped. Police spokesperson lieutenant colonel Amanda Funani confirmed the incident and said that investigations are ongoing.

Robbery at Scorebet

Rustenburg – Scorebet, located at the Biblio Plaza Shopping Centre in Nelson Mandela Drive fell victim to armed robbers on Thursday 3 February.

The suspects parked their white Ford Focus in front of the shop. Just as the doors opened that morning, three suspects entered the shop with the staff while a fourth suspect was waiting outside in the getaway car. The staff was held at gunpoint.

The suspects fled the scene with an undisclosed amount of cash. "They were in and out within seven minutes," said police spokesperson captain Elsabé Augoustides.

No arrests have been made and investigations continue.

Worst getaway vehicle ever!

Rustenburg – The driver of a dilapidated, unlicensed bakkie, which was ridiculously overloaded with galvanised palisade panels made a go for it, when police asked him to lead the way with the bakkie to show them where he got the panels from.

A Buffel Sekuriteit and Rustenburg Landelike Diens reaction officer initially spotted the bakkie as it turned towards Kroondal from the Dinie Estates Road. Traffic police pulled the bakkie over shortly after the turnoff.

While inspecting the vehicle, a member of SAPS also stopped at the scene. The driver and two passengers of the bakkie were questioned about the palisades, upon which the two passengers fled the scene. The driver however tried to spin the police and Buffel Sekuriteit a story about him having received the palisade panels from his dad.

Followed by the police and the reaction officer, the driver of the bakkie made a ridiculous attempt to flee from the police in the direction of Ikemeleng. Shortly after, the bakkie came to a standstill against the side of a house and the driver fled on foot. He was chased down, and after an altercation with police, he managed to get away.

Shortly after, Buffel Sekuriteit's reaction officer found the spot from where the palisades were stolen, a vegetable farm that Samancor has started for the community.

Not even the geese are spared in Derby

Eight geese and seven chickens kept as guard dogs, were all poisoned.

Derby – Crime in Derby has escalated to a whole new level over the past few weeks. In one of the latest criminal escapades, the geese and chickens of Thinus Coetzee, owner of Champ Auctioneers were poisoned. In Derby, we are told, people don't leave their property unattended as the criminals are constantly on the prowl looking for an opportunity.

"People are scared, especially the children and the elderly. My daughter has nightmares. We do not know where the current state of criminal affairs is going to take us," Coetzee told the Platinum Weekly.

His auctioneering business, which is close to the main road, also deals in scrap metal. On Saturday morning, 5 February, he realised that the eight geese and seven chickens he kept as guard dogs, were all poisoned. There is so much stock at the business, that it would take some time for Coetzee to tally his losses.

"We often have break ins. We cannot go away for a weekend without getting someone to look after our property. My wife is even too scared to go and hang the washing out to dry by herself."

As a scrap metal dealer, Coetzee is very careful to not create a market for stolen goods. "I wish all scrap metal companies would do the same. As long as there is a market for the stolen goods, they will continue to steal," he said.

Criminals spotted in tree

Derby – For the past few months, Derby has been plagued with crimes from housebreaking to burglaries and assault. Reverend Etienne Ferreira fell victim to two criminals who broke into his garage shortly before 02h00 on Wednesday 2 February. He immediately reported it to the neighbourhood watch and iProtect Security Services, who responded swiftly. While doing a walkabout in the reverend's yard, they found some of the stolen items under a tree. As they approached, they noticed two suspects hiding in the tree. They tried to persuade the suspects to get down, when one of the suspects lost their footing and tumbled to the ground. He fled the scene. Police were informed and because they were in the area patrolling, they arrived within minutes. On their arrival, the second suspect in the tree finally got out and landed in the hands of one of the neighbourhood watch members. He was arrested on the spot.

"We are grateful that one of the criminals targeting our community was taken off the streets," said Derby neighbourhood watch member Peet Els.

Statistics on gender based violence are continuously increasing especially against women and children. This therefore, requires us to work on an integrated manner to fight these crimes

We need to work day and night to protect our people especially women and children who are the most victims.

The outbreak of Covid - 19 pandemic has affected the number of service delivery activities and initiatives, as the country had to put these measures in place to combat the spread of the virus.

It is for this reason we encourage our people to keep working with government and all relevant stakeholders to partner with us in creating a safer environment.

Rustenburg – A 20-year-old man from Lefaragatlha will spend six months under house arrest after he was convicted of statutory rape by the Bafokeng Magistrates' Court on Monday 31 January 2022.

- Statutory rape refers to sexual relations involving someone below the "age of consent". People who are underage cannot legally consent to having sex, so any form of sexual activity with them violates the law. The age of consent in South Africa is 17.

Alfred Shongwane was sentenced to three years in prison for statutory rape following an incident in which he had sexual relations with a 13-year-old girl on 31 January 2021 (exactly a year earlier). However, the sentence was suspended on condition that Shongwane does not commit a similar offence during the six months he will be under house arrest.

Rustenburg police spokesperson sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi said Shongwane had an affair with the 13-year-old girl after the two had met through social media. "Shongwane went with the girl to his parent's house in Lefaragatlha and spent the night with her on 31 January 2021," sergeant Mokgadi said.

He walked with the girl to her parent's home the following day. The girl informed the parents about the incident and investigations by sergeant Pheny Monchusi led to the arrest of Shongwane. Irrefutable evidence produced in court resulted in Shongwane being convicted.

Investigations by sergeant Pheny Monchusi gathered crucial evidence against the accused.

Let us work together to eradicate the scourge of Gender Based Violence by reporting crimes in our communities. Report all cases of rape, sexual assault or any form of violence to local police station or call the toll - free crime stop number: 086 00 10111

R7,000 bribe lands cop in hot water

Tlhabane/ Rustenburg – A 34-year-old policeman appeared before the Bafokeng Magistrates' Court in Tlhabane on Monday 7 February on charges of corruption. Constable Lawrence Sebole stands accused of soliciting a R7,000 bribe from a man implicated in an incident of stock theft. Sebole was remanded in custody until his next appearance on Friday 11 February. He was arrested on 4 February in Phokeng after allegedly accepting cash from a man as a bribe. This man, implicated in an incident of stock theft in January, appeared in court before his case was withdrawn to allow for further investigations. National Prosecuting Authority (NPA) spokesperson for the North West, Henry Mamothame said Sebole reportedly accepted the bribe to “release a vehicle that was impounded and stored in the police exhibit yard”. Sebole’s future with the police force is not yet clear following his court appearance. Police spokesperson colonel Adèle Myburgh said internal SAPS investigations into the matter are underway. The SAPS Anti-Corruption Investigation Unit (ACIU) is investigating. Anyone with information on corrupt activities is requested to contact Crime Stop on 08600 10111 or the Anti Corruption Hot Line on 0800 701 701.

Council meeting disrupted

RLM spokesperson Thapelo Matebesi said disruptions of the Council meeting will be investigated.

Rustenburg—ARustenburg Local Municipality (RLM) special council meeting held on Friday 4 February 2022 was disrupted by a group of community members. Proceedings inside the council chambers at the Rustenburg Civic Centre were halted as the noisy group called for the removal of Marikana ward 31 councillor Vuyiswa Shomang. A video of the incident, which is circulating on social media, shows the group shouting for the removal of the councillor. RLM spokesperson Thapelo Matebesi said that a councillor was taken to hospital for treatment after sustaining injuries during the mayhem. “The Speaker of Council (councillor Koketso Mogomotsi) will institute formal investigations to get to the bottom of what could have prompted this unexpected interruption,” Matebesi said.

A NIGHT OUT ENDS IN HOSPITAL

Rustenburg – On Friday evening 4 February just before midnight, a scuffle broke out on the dancefloor at Hunter's Jaggers on the R24. What started out as a bump of the shoulder soon turned into a bloody mess. One young man was stabbed in the groin with a knife, and another stabbed in his hand – in-between the throwing of punches. Says Hunter's Jaggers owner Mariette Coetzer: “We try very hard to make this a family establishment. There is no age limit for the shows as parents often want to bring their kids along. We are very sad that this happened at our establishment.” According to lieutenant colonel Amanda Funani: everyone blamed someone else for starting the fight. “We are still trying to understand what really transpired on that night.” An 18 and 20-year-old were taken to hospital with serious injuries. A 17-year-old also opened a common assault case against the 20-year-old. The 20-year-old was released from hospital and went to open a case of assault with the intent of grievous bodily harm against the 17-year-old. The 18-year-old is still in hospital.

The Rustenburg SPCA team with Martin Bester and the donations they received.

Party animal, Martin Bester

Rustenburg/ Moedwil – With an opening act by Smith VinnRijn & The Tequila Bandit followed by Martin Bester & Band, 2Riviere Kroeg & Rooster’s patrons were partying hard on Saturday 5 February. They hosted the event for the benefit of the Rustenburg Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (SPCA). The entrance fee was a donation of dog food, cat food or blankets. Says 2Riviere Kroeg & Rooster owner Martin van Vollenstee: “It was a huge success! Thank you to everyone who supported this worthy cause.” Attendees stood in awe of the green-haired beauty Laura Pretorius jamming on her guitar to one of Smith VinnRijn & The Tequila Bandit’s original songs. After their remarkable performance lead singer PJ Smith said: “Animals cannot speak for themselves so it’s up to us to be their voice.” Next on stage was Martin Bester & Band. Says Martin, who is best known for his breakfast show ‘Breakfast with Martin Bester’ on Jacaranda FM: “I have always tried to support animal welfare organisations and when 2Riviere Kroeg & Rooster approached me about doing a show, it was a no-brainer. The SPCA does the work that not all of us have the heart to do, because it’s too difficult and yet they persevere. I would like to encourage the community to support them so that they can continue to do the work that they have to do.” By the third song, fans were on their feet and singing along with rock songs performed by the band. In a truly moving moment the crowd gathered in a circle around Martin and joined in as he sang ‘Don’t Worry Be Happy’ by Bobby McFerrin. All funds raised with an auction held at the event went to Rustenburg SPCA. A pair of Oakley sunglasses, a cooler box filled with alcohol and a wheelbarrow filled with alcohol was auctioned off. Jaco Breytenbach won the bid for the wheelbarrow at R6,000. “I really needed a new wheelbarrow,” he laughingly added. The highlight of the day was by far the amount of donations received.

Community member Antoinette Wasserman shared her love for animals, “If I could adopt them all, I would. For that reason, we came to show our support for Rustenburg SPCA.” The Rustenburg SPCA walked away with R25,000 as well as 10 tonnes of food, blankets and medicine as well as a sponsor for a cool room, the installation for the cool room and the concrete needed to install it. Rustenburg SPCA manager Marisa Kruger said: “Thank you so much to Martin and the team at 2Riviere Kroeg & Rooster. You are absolutely fantastic! To the community, you are absolutely amazing, and we stand in awe of you.”

Have your say / Sê jou sê

Do you think gender should play a role when people are being hired for certain positions or jobs?

"Anything you can do I can do better..." Does the same apply to gender roles in the work environment?

Yes. I think there are jobs that's more suited for women, for example a receptionist... While jobs that are more physically demanding rather require men.
Antonio Moropa

No! Gender isn't the problem. I'm a salesperson. I believe I'm capable of my work like any other man. When people are being hired for certain positions, that which a person bring to the table must be the main consideration.
Jenette Jansen van Rensburg

No, gender should not be a barrier or obstacle for any profession in this century. We are all equal. The playing field should be level.
Donald Mamboma

PSALMS 98, 1-9

1Oh, sing to the Lord a new song!
For He has done marvelous things;
His right hand and His holy arm have gained Him the victory.
2The Lord has made known His salvation;
His righteousness He has revealed in the sight of the nations.
3He has remembered His mercy and His faithfulness to the house of Israel;
All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
4Shout joyfully to the Lord, all the earth;
Break forth in song, rejoice, and sing praises.
5Sing to the Lord with the harp,
With the harp and the sound of a psalm,
6With trumpets and the sound of a horn;
Shout joyfully before the Lord, the King.
7Let the sea roar, and all its fullness,
The world and those who dwell in it;
8Let the rivers clap their hands;
Let the hills be joyful together before the Lord,
9For He is coming to judge the earth.
With righteousness
He shall judge the world,
And the peoples with equity.

Do you like camping?

The opportunity to spend time in the great outdoors away from all the hustle and bustle is a great way to relax... but staying in a tent, cooking outdoors and not sleeping in a bed is not everyone's cup of tea. (mind you... making a cup might be a hassle in itself!)

Make yourself heard by sending an email to news@platinumweekly.co.za or a WhatsApp to 081 579 7000 with the following information before 17:00 on Tuesday 15 February 2022:

- Yes, I like camping.
- No, I don't like camping.
- The reason for your answer.
- A recent photo of yourself (optional) – that we can publish with your answer.
- Your contact details.

If you don't want your answers to be in the newspaper, just reply to the question: YES/ NO. The results of the votes will be published in our next issue.

For the love of the game!

SA – So, who will stop Orlando Pirates in the DStv Diski Challenge? This is the question that has become a talking point ahead of the next round of fixtures.

Saturday 5 February updates

- The Buccaneers recorded a 3-1 win over Royal AM thanks to a brace from the league's top scorer Boitumelo Radiopane.
- It was bad news, however, for Kaizer Chiefs who registered a 2-1 loss at the hands of Maritzburg United. Do you think Chiefs must spy on Pirates during their training sessions to find out how their Soweto neighbours have been coming up with a winning formula?
- Meanwhile, Mamelodi Sundowns were not at their best and fought hard for a 1-0 win over Golden Arrows on.
- Stellenbosch FC also got the better of Sekhukhune United by a 1-0 margin.

Matches this Saturday 12 February

- Kaizer Chiefs v AmaZulu
The Chiefs will have to be on top of their game because another defeat is unlikely to go down well with their supporters. Kick-off is 12:30 at Bidvest Stadium in Johannesburg. Mduzuzi Shabalala's goal was the only positive aspect of their 2-1 loss to Maritzburg United. However, the Glamour Boys are unlikely to have it easy once again against an AmaZulu team bubbling with confidence following their 2-0 win over Marumo Gallants. This one is likely to be a cracker!

• Royal AM v Baroka FC

Royal AM will be a very dangerous team to beat because they are likely to pull out all the stops to make sure they win this one. Kick-off is at 10:00 at Mpumalanga Stadium. After their defeat to Pirates, they will be out to make a big statement. Baroka, who also lost their last match to Chippa United by a 1-0 margin, will be out for a good result that will prove there are not taking part in the league just to make up the numbers. Exciting stuff!

• Moroka Swallows v Stellenbosch FC

Swallows were held to a 1-1 draw by Tim Sukazi (TM) Galaxy in their previous match and will be facing a Stellenbosch FC team, who is high on confidence following their victory over Sekhukhune United. Experience could favour Swallows but, then again, football is very unpredictable! Kick-off is at 10:00 at Bidvest Stadium.

Other fixtures are as follows:

- Sekhukhune United will be up against TS Galaxy at Makhulong Stadium on Saturday 12 February from 12:00.
- Chippa United will play against Maritzburg United at Wolfson Stadium, also on 12 February. The match will start at 10:00.
- Marumo Gallants will take on Mamelodi Sundowns Reserves on 13 February at 10:00 at the Old Peter Mokaba Stadium, Polokwane.

United Rugby Championship

Stormers vs Sharks

Die Stormers behaal 'n goeie oorwinning oor die Sharks in Kaapstad ou grote en skuif op tot die tiende plek op die puntetabel. Die Kapenaars het vriend en vyand verras met hul vertoning en wen 20-10. Die halftyd-telling was 7-3 in die tuisspan se guns. Voorlans het die Stormers hul man gestaan en die vuurvreter Deon Fourie het gekook op die losballe en was ook as man van die wedstryd aangewys. Agterlans was Herschel Jantjies op skrummie baie goed. Dan Du Plessis het sy beste game ooit vir die Stormers op 12 gespeel en was dodelik op die aanval en verdediging. Die sterbelaaide Haaie-span is hard teruggebring aarde toe ou grote... Die Sharks se volgende game is teen die Bulle op Saterdag 12 Februarie om 17:05 op Loftus. Die Somers reis Jo'burg toe om teen die Leeus te gaan uitdraf.

Bulls vs Lions

Op Fort Loftus klop die Bulle die Leeus 21-13. Die Leeus het baie beter gespeel as verlede Saterdag. Die rustydteelling was 14-6 in die Bulle se guns. Die nuwe agterlynn wat deur die Leeus se coach gekies is, het goed gespeel. As hulle só behou word, sal hulle in 'n gedugte kombinasie ontwikkel. Maar ervaring speel 'n groot rol in hierdie tawwe kompetisie en dit is deur die hardebaarde in die Bulle se span gewys. Marcell Coetzee en kie het – wanneer dit saak gemaak het – die nodige druk toegepas.

Die Bulle gaan op Saterdag 12 Februarie teen die Sharks op Loftus om 17:05 uitdraf. Die Leeus gaan gasheer vir die Stormers in Jo'burg speel.

Chicken with tomato sauce (serves four)

Rustenburg/ Tlhabane – Oupa Modise, from Tlhabane, enjoys putting his cooking skills to the test in the kitchen whenever he finds the time.

Chicken with tomato sauce, one of his favourite dishes, is easy to make. Thanks for sharing your recipe, Oupa!

Ingredients:

- 30ml or 2 tablespoons sunflower oil
- 4 chicken quarters
- 1 onion, grated or very finely chopped
- 1 garlic clove, crushed
- 5ml or 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- a good pinch of ground ginger
- 6kg very ripe, sweet tomatoes, peeled, cored and roughly chopped
- 50g blanched almonds
- 1 tablespoon sesame seeds
- salt and ground black pepper
- chopped flat leaf parsley, to garnish

Instructions:

1. Heat the oil in a large, flameproof casserole pot and add the chicken. Cook over a medium heat for about 3 minutes until it is lightly browned.
2. Add the onion, garlic, cinnamon and ginger.
3. Add the tomatoes to the casserole with seasoning to taste and heat gently until the tomatoes bubble.
4. Lower the heat and then cover the casserole with a lid. Simmer very gently for about 1 hour, stirring and turning the chicken occasionally, or until it is completely cooked through (pierce the thigh area to check that the meat juices are clear).
5. Lift out the chicken pieces and put them in a plate.
6. Increase the heat and cook the tomato sauce until it is reduced to a thick puree, stirring frequently. Return the chicken pieces to the pan and cook for 2 to 3 minutes.
7. In a plate, sprinkle the chicken with blanched almonds and sesame seeds. Serve garnished with parsley.

Carlos goes the extra mile

Rustenburg - You will find Carlos Cloete alone on the field, exercising and stretching his muscles, before the start of each rugby training session. "I enjoy putting in the extra effort just before we start our practice sessions," Cloete told the Platinum Weekly. His commitment to improve his skills and his passion for the game saw this 21-year-old winning Impala Rugby Club's Junior Backline player of the year accolade for 2021. Cloete, who attended David Brink Primary School and Bergsig Academy, started taking rugby seriously at the age of 15. "Later on, I was awarded with a bursary to study at Glenwood Boys High School in Durban. It is one of the top schools in the country when it comes to rugby," Cloete said. "I played with the likes of Jayden Hendrikse, who is now playing with the Springboks." He said playing rugby has also taught him important life skills like discipline, respect and the effectiveness of real teamwork. Carlos came back to Rustenburg at the beginning of 2021 and is currently studying Human Movement Sciences at the North West University (NWU). "For us at Impala Rugby Club, the most important goal is to win the Leopards League because this will enable us to take part in the Gold Cup," he said. "We will also be competing in the Carlton League so I am looking forward to the new season."

Papie juggles football with studying

Rustenburg – While Papie Ramotsemang may be passionate about football, he is well aware of the importance of a good education. The 18-year-old Ramotsemang, who trains with Grassroots Goalkeeper Academy in Rustenburg, is excited, yet sad as he talks to Platinum Weekly about having to leave Rustenburg in the coming weeks to pursue his studies in Johannesburg. With the assistance of the National Student Financial Aid Scheme (NSFAS), Ramotsemeng was admitted at the University of Johannesburg (UJ). He's going to study sports management and will try out for the UJ football team. "I have to strike a good balance between studying and playing football. I will play soccer after class, leaving enough time for my studies," says Papie. "It is very important to have a good education in life. If I get injured and cannot play football, I can make use of my qualification," he explained. The young goalkeeper, who is eager to realise his dream of becoming a professional football player, is grateful for the skills he has acquired from Grassroots Goalkeeper Academy. He said: "I joined the academy in 2020 and when I look back, I realise how far I've come. Skills such as handling the ball, diving as well as distributing the ball to an outfield player are important and I hope to continue developing as a player when I'm at the university." Papie, born and bred in Rustenburg, said: "I am very attached to Rustenburg and will miss it while at UJ." Papie finished his Grade 12 at Tlhabane Technical High School last year. "I will miss my friends when I move to Johannesburg for my studies".

Crucial warm-up match for Impala

Rustenburg – Impala Rugby Club will have a chance to test the fitness levels of all their three teams during matches against Randfontein this Saturday, 12 February. That's our first team, second team (Vikings) and third team (Terriers). Impala, who like their opponents are in pre-season training, will be using the matches to finetune their skills ahead of the start of the season in March. Impala Rugby Club coach Joel Sherman will most likely use this match to identify the core players that will compete in the Carlton and Leopards league. Trials were held on 5 February.
