A man lost his life on the N4.

Serious accident on N4

Rustenburg – Traffic on the N4 was brought to a standstill at around 14h00 on Wednesday 16 February close to the Marikana toll gate. ER24 responded to the scene and confirmed that one man lost his life in the accident when a truck and car collided. We extend our sincerest condolences to the family and friends of the deceased.

Motorists were stuck bumper to bumper all the way to the Shell garage.

WOMEN VICIOUSLY ATTACKED ON SMALLHOLDING

Rustenburg – A woman staying on a smallholding in Modderfontein was viciously attacked by four men shortly after arriving at home on Saturday 12 February. She returned home quarter past six the evening, after helping friends of hers to move from Harties to Rustenburg. “I must have surprised the intruders as I’ve been working until 9 or 10 o’clock at night over the past 3 weeks,” she told Platinum Weekly. They were already in the house and had her dogs closed off in one of the bedrooms. They beat her, kicked her and even threatened to cut off her hair with a knife. She was hit over the head with a gun. When she regained consciousness, she immediately raised the alarm. Members of the local community safety group arrived within minutes. “I would like to thank Buffel Sekuriteit and Rustenburg Landelike Diens owner Charl Visser and his response team, neighbours, the police, and the ambulance personnel who responded immediately and were very helpful,” she said. The intruders got away with two laptops and a TV.

LUKA SCHOOL TORCHED

Rustenburg/ Luka – Just before midnight on Saturday evening 12 February, an angry mob set Ramotse Primary School in Luka Village on fire. The fire engulfed a computer lab with 40 computers, photocopiers, printers, a mathematics lab and other equipment. “This is a blatant attack on the right to education,” said North West Department of Education MEC Mmaphefo Matsemela. SAPS spokesperson colonel Adele Myburgh said: “We are investigating a case of arson.” In an exclusive interview with North West Department of Education spokesperson Elias Malindi: “It is not the entire school that was burnt down. The learners are still attending classes as per usual. However, the computer lessons are out of the question at this stage.”

- Former student at the school Tebogo Mosito, is worried about the effect the incident will have on learners attending the school. “I can still remember my first day at school – at Ramotse Primary... It was a struggle to get to school and life was harder then. Now some stupid people decided to burn computers, learning material and deny children a better education with advanced technology.”

The fire destroyed a computer lab with 40 computers.

SERIAL RAPIST CAUGHT WITH MATCHING DNA

Rustenburg – Based on DNA evidence, Michael Motsamai Segale (42) was sentenced to five life sentences by the Rustenburg Regional Court on 8 February 2022 after he was found guilty on four counts of rape. His sentences will not run concurrently. He pled on little girls in Boitekong and Lethabong from April to June 2013. His victims were aged 5 to 15. His modus operandi was to approach the girls and pretend to be lost and ask for directions.

Getting closer, he would threaten them with a knife. “He would then order them to get undressed and then rape them,” says SAPS spokesperson captain Aafjie Botma. He was arrested on Friday 19 July 2013. At the time he was on parole for another rape case.

Farewell, Amarula

We won't forget you

Rubbing shoulders with the US Consul

Rustenburg – “I value South Africa’s unique ability to ensure its respecting and honouring its past and legacy, while looking forward. I am very struck by that as an American,” says the United States Consulate General, Vincent Spera in his recent visit to Rustenburg in an interview with Platinum Weekly. He paid a visit to the North West Province on a four-day tour early February 2022. He met with the likes of Kgosi Leruo Tshekedi Molotlegi of the Royal Bafokeng Nation, Rustenburg Local Municipality executive mayor cllr Sheila Mabale-Huma, the North West MEC for Health Madoda Sambatha, NW MEC for DEDECT Kenetswe Mosenogi and director general for NWPG Mosweu Mogote... A busy four days! Spera arrived in South Africa in July 2021 for his 3-year assignment as the US Consul General in Johannesburg. Prior to this assignment, he was director of the Office of African Affairs at the US Department of State’s Bureau of Democracy, Human Rights, and Labour. From 2017-2019 he served as acting director of the Department’s Office of East African Affairs. He is based in Pretoria with his wife and two children. He travels frequently. Before joining the state department, he visited 41 states in the USA and 17 countries in Africa. “Our focus is on building relations with the national and provincial SA government. With our embassy in Pretoria, we operate with three consulates in SA; based in Durban, Cape Town and in Johannesburg,” he said. As head of Gauteng, Free State and North West, his primary role is to oversee activities, investments, and programmes in the three provinces, which build relations with government, the private sector, civil society and the community at large. “We broadly focus on economic development issues,” he added. “Meaning... How can we make the business-to-business connections to help the economy as a whole? That means we highlight job creation, economic opportunities and sustainable economic investments.” Spera reported that the consulate made significant investments into North West’s HIV programmes. The goal is that:

- 95% of people living with HIV/AIDS become aware of their status.
- Of that 95% get treatment.
- And of that number, 95% suppress the virus to the point where they can no longer spread HIV.

On a lighter note, Spera said: “I confess... I really like biltong!” As his wanderlust leads him across the world to inspire, build and create a better future, he also explores dishes embedded into the culture of each country. “I can relate to cooking on flames with our barbeque – but braai vleis is certainly a good meal. I also enjoy pap, samp – and I simply love Malva Pudding.”

Rustenburg – “Rest well our boy... You have blessed the park with your footprints all over, and the most awesome viewing for our visitors – with some maybe a little too close,” says Pilanesberg Wildlife Trust marketing and PR manager Perry Dell. Amarula was one of the six elephants that were transferred from Kruger National Park to Pilanesberg National Park in 1998 to help bring the younger elephants that were on a rampage, under control. On Tuesday 8 February, Amarula which was also the oldest of the elephants at the park, died from old age at the age of 65. An elephant carcass was spotted by the Bathawk anti-poaching surveillance patrol and shortly after it was confirmed that it was the remains of Amarula. He was definitely the most famous elephant of the Pilanesberg National Park. In 2011 he made headlines when he was captured flipping a tourist’s car. According to the game rangers at the time, he was in a state of ‘musth’. This is when the bull elephant experiences an increase in reproductive hormones and becomes highly aggressive. The week before, Amarula also tried to have his way with the rental car of two French tourists, leaving them without a front bumper, a crumpled roof and a flat tyre. “Elephants don’t only crush cars because they don’t get the respect due to them, they sometimes react on previous bad experiences. Other times they just do it for the fun, or they are simply annoyed,” Dell says. Speaking to the Platinum Weekly, North West Parks Board acting chief conservation officer Pieter Nel explained the complexity of elephants: “They have family structures. It is fascinating seeing them interact with each other. You will even find that members of different ‘families’ will ‘visit’ each other.” Young elephants were introduced into the park as part of Operation Genesis in 1979. It involved the re-introduction of many species, long vanished from the area. As time went by, they populated and some of the male bulls who went in musth and wreaked havoc in the park. When some of the elephants had to be culled, the attacks got even worse. Apparently, it was caused by the trauma they experienced, having some of their family members killed. They started attacking rhinos and by 1996, they reportedly killed a total of 28 rhinos. The situation was brought under control with the introduction of the older elephants, and the discontinuation of culling the elephants. Amarula will fondly be remembered as the biggest of all the elephants at the park. His close encounters with visitors will be talked about for years to come. As elephant tradition goes, he will also be mourned by his elephant family. Farewell, Amarula.

Elephants are well known for their intelligence, close family ties and social complexity, and they don’t forget people and places. The elephant’s temporal lobe (the area of the brain associated with memory) is larger and denser than that of people – hence the saying ‘elephants never forget’.

They have strong individual personalities that affect how they interact with other elephants, how others perceive them, and how well they are able to influence members of their group. For example, some elephants are popular while others are not. Some elephants show strong leadership qualities, others do not; some are highly social “extroverts”, while others are less social, “introverts.”

Shortage of foot and mouth disease vaccine?

SA – The Department of Agriculture, Land Reform and Rural Development (DALRRD) denied a shortage of foot and mouth disease vaccines, following anomalies raised by the Democratic Alliance (DA) in the sector.

In January this year, DA portfolio committee member on Agriculture, Land Reform and Rural Development Noko Masipa said livestock farmers require more support from the government with regards to the management of diseases. Masipa, who also called on the government to prioritise the construction of facilities that will enable South Africa to produce more foot and mouth vaccines locally, instead of relying on imports, raised concern over insufficient supplies of the inoculation.

“We urgently need to address the shortage of locally produced foot and mouth disease (FMD) vaccines and other much-needed livestock vaccines for diseases like Rift Valley fever and bluetongue disease,” Masipa said. However, responding to an inquiry from Platinum Weekly, DALRRD spokesperson Linda Page denied there was a shortage of locally produced vaccines. Page said more doses of the vaccine will be made available if there is such a request from government authorities.

National minimum wage announced

SA – The national minimum wage for 2022 was published on Monday 7 February and will come into effect from 1 March.

Minister of Employment and Labour Thulas Nxesi, announced that the national minimum wage is now R23.19 for each ordinary hour worked. The national minimum wage is the amount payable for ordinary hours of work and excludes payment of allowances such as transportation, tools, food, or lodging, payments in kind, board or lodging, tips, bonuses, and gifts.

This represents an increase of 6.9% from the minimum wage set in 2021.

When determining the annual adjustment, the commission considers factors like the inflation of cost of living and the need to maintain the value of the minimum wage; gross domestic product; wage levels and collective bargaining outcomes; productivity;

the employers' ability to carry on their businesses successfully; the operation of small, medium, or micro-enterprises and new enterprises; and the likely impact of the recommended adjustment on employment or the creation of employment.

As in previous years, the adjustment provides exceptions for several worker groups, including:

- Farmworkers are entitled to a minimum wage of R23.19 per hour;
- Domestic workers are entitled to a minimum wage of R23.19 per hour;
- Workers employed on an expanded public works programme are entitled to a minimum wage of R12.75 per hour;
- Workers who have concluded learnership agreements contemplated in section 17 of the Skills Development Act, 1998 (Act No 97 of 1998), are entitled to allowances contained in schedule 2.

It was also noted that the Department of Labour has identified an error in the published BCEA gazette that incorrectly states the effective date as 1 March 2021; this error is currently being reviewed and will be corrected. The correct date of effect is 1 March 2022.

Glencore Ferroalloys hands over car to support local woman-owned business in Rustenburg

Rustenburg – Glencore Ferroalloys started the new year on a much-needed positive note as they handed over a car and manufacturing machinery to local business, Ramotshwedi Pty (Ltd) on 2 February. Ramotshwedi is a female-owned business founded by Reabetswe Maungwa and is part of Glencore Ferroalloys' Enterprise Development programme. The programme aims to support SMMEs in the communities near Glencore's operations so they can contribute to local economies.

The handover was held at the Glencore Business Hub and was attended by Glencore Ferroalloys representatives, Rustenburg Local Municipality MMC Karabo Phutu and enterprise development manager Tebogo Sehloho, Western Chrome Mines (WCM) general manager Richard Vermeulen and HR manager Rebecca Mokhothu.

Enterprise and supplier development superintendent for Glencore Ferroalloys, Charlin Ntuli who addressed guests on the day, said that the handover was the beginning of many great things for the community.

"Our commitment to transformation goes beyond just ticking the boxes of compliance, when we see talent and potential we truly go all out. As Glencore, we pride ourselves in creating what we call Progress Together in our communities, and we consistently live out this message wherever we can," she added.

The support given to Ramotshwedi forms part of a commitment Glencore Ferroalloys made at the launch of their 16 Days of Activism Against Gender Based Violence and Femicide (GBVF) awareness campaign. On the day, Glencore committed to supporting 10 small women-owned businesses near their Rustenburg operations. The programme is part of Glencore's Enterprise Development which seeks to upskill and support local SMMEs so they can create job opportunities, thus contributing to the growth of local economies.

MMC Karabo Phutu from the Rustenburg Local Municipality applauded Glencore for their commitment to SMMEs, especially those that are women-owned.

"Today, I can finally say mining meets agriculture, the two can never be separated. Further to that I'd like to encourage our community members who look for opportunities in mining houses to not only concentrate on the core business of the mines but other possible avenues as well, as who would have imagined Glencore supporting a business that locally produces sauces. I want to congratulate Glencore for all the hard work they have done today, this will become a benchmark in supporting local communities as we have the responsibility to address unemployment and ensure people from our communities are able to use the platforms created to further support those around them as well," he added.

On the day, Glencore handed over an Opel Combi as well as a fridge, oven, pots and other equipment to Reabetswe so she can continue producing, supplying and transporting her products to consumers.

Reabetswe could barely contain her excitement as she thanked Glencore for their support. "This is such an incredible day for me. I am filled with so much gratitude to Glencore for recognising my journey and walking with me. When I started this, it was just an idea from my kitchen and I while I had many hopes, I had no idea it would get this far. I am so proud of the sauces I make; I would walk as long as it takes to ensure that people taste it because that is how much I believe in it. I am so grateful to the Glencore Alloys team for their support and mentorship, I promise to do all that is in my power to pay it forward by empowering more women," she said. Press release extracts

We may run out of helium within 25–30 years. In addition to being used to fill balloons, it is also used for arc welding, diving, growing silicon crystals, and as a coolant in magnetic resonance imaging (MRI) scanners. Helium is (mostly) not a renewable resource and extremely rare.

Do you like camping?

The opportunity to spend time in the great outdoors away from all the hustle and bustle is a great way to relax... but staying in a tent, cooking outdoors and not sleeping in a bed is not everyone's cup of tea. Let's hear from our readers...

Yes, I enjoy camping. It's therapy for the loneliness I experienced during the Covid-19 lockdowns. Camping gives you an opportunity to reconnect with yourself. After a camping experience, one feels rejuvenated, physically and psychologically, and ready to face life's challenges.

Gilroy Tlou

No. I'm more of an indoors person. I would consider going camping if someone invited me. However, I prefer watching TV and spending hours on my computer.

20 Jaar van inspireer, verryk en vervul

Rustenburg – Die Vroue Landbou Unie (VLU) bied aan sy lede 'n verskeidenheid opvoedkundige en prettige geleenthede om hulself en ander vrouens te verryk. In Rustenburg is daar 20 jaar gelede 'n leemte geïdentifiseer vir vrouens wat graag aan die VLU wil behoort, maar nie die vergaderings deur die dag kan bywoon nie. So is die aand-tak op 12 Februarie 2022 amptelik gestig. Daar is besluit dat hul 'n naam 'eg' aan Rustenburg wil hê en het op Kashané besluit.

Tydens 'n spoggeleentheid op Saterdag 12 Februarie, het die VLU Kashané hul 20ste verjaardag gevier.

Die geleentheid is geopen met Skriflesing en gebed deur Theresa Graham wat 'n vers uit Job voorgelees het om lede te inspireer om die pad te volg wat God vir hul uiteengesit het.

Theresa wat een van die stigterslede was en die eerste vergadering bygewoon het, het haar 20 jaar VLU bakkie ontvang. Die bakkie is oorhandig deur Lettie van Zyl, wat in 2002 as voorsitter van die Platinastreek gedien het en self ook die eerste vergadering bygewoon het.

"Alles wat ek weet het ek by die VLU geleer. Dit was nie net kompetisie nie, jy het geleer hoe om dit te doen en hoe om dit rég te doen. Ons het lekker gesosialiseer en ander vrouens opgehef. Dit gaan oor samesyn en ek het deur die jare baie hegte bande gesmee," aldus Lettie.

Lettie het ook 'n tafeldoek wat sy ontvang het na haar ses-jaar diens as streekvoorsitter, terug oorhandig aan die streek. Dié tafeldoek is spesiaal geborduur met die mooiste blomme en die name van al die takke in die streek.

Liz-Mari Jansen van Vuuren het as gaskunstenaar opgetree. As 'n spesiale item het sy Psalm 134 gesing en die dames 'n hartlike seën toegewens. Met nostalgie is die eerste vergadering se notule voorgelees. Dit was duidelik dat die tak al van die eerste vergadering, 'n plek van behoort is vir vrouens wat mekaar ondersteun en samesyn geniet.

Deur die jare heen is daar al vele inligtingssessies gehou wat almal daarop gemik is om hul kennis en vaardighede te verbeter. Dames kon aan verskeie van die kompetisies deelneem waar hul op alle vlakke aangemoedig is om hul vaardighede te verbeter en te toets. Die vaardighede sluit onder andere kulinêre, gebak, brei, hekel, borduurwerk, handwerk kursusse, leierskapsontwikkeling, funksie beplanning en kommunikasie in.

Dit is werklik 'n organisasie waar kreatiewe dames bymekaar kan kom, kan saam kuier en saam leer. Hulle nooi almal hartlik uit wat wil aansluit by die groep om die voorsitter van die VLU Kashané aand-tak, Charmain Coetzer, te kontak op 083 469 5505.

The Way of the Righteous and the End of the Ungodly

1 Blessed is the man
Who walks not in the counsel of the ungodly,
Nor stands in the path of sinners,
Nor sits in the seat of the scornful;
2 But his delight is in the law of the Lord,
And in His law he meditates day and night.
3 He shall be like a tree
Planted by the rivers of water,
That brings forth its fruit in its season,
Whose leaf also shall not wither;
And whatever he does shall prosper.

4 The ungodly are not so,
But are like the chaff which the wind drives away.
5 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment,
Nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

6 For the Lord knows the way of the righteous,
But the way of the ungodly shall perish.

Gesond en dankbaar op 90!

Tannie Rina vier haar 90ste verjaarsdag.

Rustenburg – Die NG Kerk Proteapark het groot maktietie gehou vir Tannie Rina Fourie vir haar 90ste verjaarsdag op Vrydag 4 Februarie. Vriende en familie het van heinde en ver gekom en haar bederf met liefde, omgee en lekkernye terwyl hul die hele dag saam met haar gekuier het. Tannie Rina het in 1949 na Rustenburg verhuis. In haar jong dae was sy 'n kranige sportvrou – veral op die tennisbaan. Sy was ook welbekend op die rolbalbaan. Sy is trots om te kan sê dat op 90 is sy nog gesond en bestuur ook nog self. "Ek het deur die jare baie ontvang, veral genade. Deur genade het ek nog altyd goeie gesondheid gehad, en die kerk het vir my baie beteken," aldus tannie Rina. Sy deel graag die beste advies wat sy al ooit ontvang het: "Alles is net genade van Bo." Baie geluk met Tannie se verjaarsdag!

UNITED RUGBY CHAMPIONSHIP

Lions vs Stormers
Op Ellispark verniel die Kapenaars die Jo'burgers ou grote. Die Stormers wen 32-10 en is dan ook nou die voorste SA-span op die log en beklee tans die sewende plek met 23 punte na nege games. Vir die Stormers het losskakel Manie Libbok sy beste game nog in die Stormers jersey gespeel. Deon Fourie, nommer-ses flank, was weer kookwater en is nou vir die tweede week as speler van die wedstryd aangewys. Fourie is 'n derduiwel in die los en het hope omgekeerde besit bewerkstellig. Vir die Leeus lê daar harde werk voor en sal veral na hul verdediging moet kyk... anders gaan hulle die melkkoei in die reeks word. Die Leeus se volgende game is op 25 Feb teen Leinster in Ierland. Die Stormers speel op 26 Feb teen Connacht in Ierland.

Sharks vs Bulls
Daar was groot drama op Fort Loftus ou grote! Morné Steyn sien rooi... nie van kwaai wees nie – maar sowaar 'n rooi kaart! Dít na 'n gevaarlike hoogvat op Lukhanyo Am in die 10de minuut van die eerste helfte. Ter versagting vir Steyn moet mens tog in ag neem die oge is ook nou nie meer so skerp as tien jaar terug nie. Die Bulle was van daar af onder geweldige druk. Om vir sewentig minute met veertien spelers klaar te kom teen 'n sterbelaaide span soos die Haai, sit nie in almal se broeke nie. Die Bulle verloor hierdie tuis game 29-22 en behaal tog 'n bonuspunt vir hulle vier drieë. Die Sharks se skrummie, Grant Williams, het drie minute voor die einde toe ook die strafkas gedeel met Steyn. Die Bulls se volgende game is op 25 Feb teen Zebre in Italië. Die Sharks reis ook Italië toe om teen Benetton te gaan uitdra. Groot nuus in die Sharks kamp is die aanstelling van die Blitsbokke se coach, Neil Powell, wat aangewys is as nuwe direkteur van afrigting vir die unie. Ander lekker stoep storie is Eben Etzebeth wat dalk op pad is na Durban...

Nag ou grote...

For the love of the game!

SA – So, does Orlando Pirates still have a clear path to win the DStv Diski Challenge? Well, there are 13 matches left and although Pirates are currently at the top of the log with 40 points, Stellenbosch United are just three points away from the Soweto-based team and the next four rounds of matches could give an indication of how this year's title chase is likely to pan out.

Saturday 13 February updates

- Kaizer Chiefs registered a 3-2 win over AmaZulu in a match that they deserved to win. AmaZulu never really recovered after trailing 0-2 at halftime and Chiefs hung on to collect all three points.
- Royal AM romped to a 5-2 win over Baroka FC in a lively match. From an entertaining aspect, few matches will rival a seven-goal thriller that gave full value to those who witnessed the action!
- Stellenbosch United underlined their status as title contenders with a 4-2 win over Moroka Swallows. That result was very significant as Stellenbosch managed to reduce the gap between them and log leaders Orlando Pirates (who were held to a goalless draw by Cape Town City at Bidvest Stadium) to three points.
- The biggest win of them all was TS Galaxy's 4-0 win over Sekhukhune United. United, who were trailing 0-1 at halftime, could not find the answer to a well-drilled Galaxy that managed to add three more goals in the second half.

- Mamelodi Sundowns had to work hard for their 2-1 win over Marumo Gallants while Chippa United and Maritzburg United played out to a 0-0 draw at Wolfson Stadium.

Matches this Saturday 19 February

- Chippa United v Orlando Pirates
Pirates will be eager to extend their lead in the log standings and are huge favourites to collect maximum points at the expense of Chippa. However, Chippa will not be pushovers and will be looking to cause what could be a major upset. Kick-off at Wolfson Stadium is at 10:00.
- Marizburg United v Swallows FC
Swallows will be under pressure to erase the memories of their defeat to Stellenbosch. But will they get the better of Maritzburg United? Find out at 10:00 at Harry Gwala Stadium.
- Marumo Gallants v SuperSport United
Like Swallows, Marumo Gallants were on the receiving end during the previous round of matches. They will be banking on home advantage when they look to get the better of SuperSport United. Kick-off at Old Peter Mokaba Stadium is at 10:00.
- Stellenbosch FC v Mamelodi Sundowns
This will be a battle between number two and three on the log standings. The winner of this one will feel they have the ability to go on and challenge Pirates for the title. Kick-off at Idas Valley Sport Ground is at 12:00

Other fixtures are as follows:

- Cape Town will be hoping to get the better of Baroka FC when the two teams play against each other at Malta Park (Sunday 20 Feb) from 10:00.
- Royal AM will lock horns with Golden Arrows at Mpumalanga Stadium (20 Feb). The match will start at 10:00.
- TS Galaxy will take on Sekhukhune United Reserves (20 Feb) at Tsakane Stadium. The match will start at 10:00.
- AmaZulu will play Kaizer Chiefs (20 Feb) in a potentially exciting match at the King Goodwill Zwelithini Stadium. Kick-off is at 12:00.

IF YOU SEE SOMETHING, SAY SOMETHING

Rustenburg – Society too often has an attitude of 'it's none of my business' when they see problems in other households. Sometimes we are told something in confidence, that in your heart you know you must report, but out of fear of breaking confidence... remain silent. When it comes to child abuse there is no excuse. Make it your business.

- Child Welfare Rustenburg is currently busy with a campaign to raise awareness of how important it is to report all cases of child abuse and neglect.

The theme of the campaign is 'Keeping each other accountable', and it is time that we live up to that standard. We can no longer remain silent; we can no longer turn the other way. It takes a village to raise a child and our children need us to look out for them when their parents can't. Dealing with abuse in the correct manner could make the difference between the perpetrator being convicted or acquitted. The more information you can give the social worker, like names, address, ages of the kids, and what school the kids go to will all assist the social worker in his/her investigations. You can report abuse and neglect anonymously, but it might make a big difference if you are a witness.

There are different types of abuse: Physical abuse, sexual abuse, emotional abuse and neglect. All off these need to be reported. When neglect is suspected, people are not always sure where the line is drawn and if they should report it. If a parent fails to provide adequate food, shelter, affection, supervision, education, or dental or medical care, it means that a child is being neglected. There are a number of signs that could indicate the possibility. Outward signs may include frequent absenteeism from school, poor hygiene such as being consistently dirty or having severe body odour, lack of sufficient clothing, and being inappropriately dressed for the weather. Signs that the child isn't receiving needed medical, dental, or vision care are also warning signs. Children don't often report it when they are abused that is why it is important that you look out for the signs.

There are different signs for different types of abuse... so be on the lookout for these red flags:

- Unexplained injuries like burns, bites, broken bones or black eyes.
- Fading bruises or other marks after being absent from school.
- If the child is scared or cries when they have to go home.
- The child may have difficulty sitting or walking.
- Suddenly refuses to change for gym or to participate in physical activities.
- Reports nightmares or bedwetting.
- Experiences a sudden change in appetite.
- Shows extremities in behaviour, such as overly compliant or demanding behaviour, extreme passivity, or aggression.
- Is either inappropriately adult (parenting other children, for example) or inappropriately infantile (frequently rocking or head-banging, for example).
- Is delayed in physical or emotional development.
- Has attempted suicide.
- Reports a lack of attachment to the parent.

Warning signs of abusive parents or caregivers:

- Appears to be indifferent to the child.
- Seems apathetic or depressed.
- Behaves irrationally or in a bizarre manner.
- Is abusing alcohol or other drugs.
- Offers conflicting, unconvincing, or no explanation for the child's injury.
- Describes the child as 'evil,' or in some other very negative way.
- Uses harsh physical discipline with the child.
- Is unduly protective of the child or severely limits the child's contact with other children, especially of the opposite sex.
- Is secretive and isolated.
- Is jealous or controlling with family members.
- Constantly blames, belittles, or berates the child.
- Is unconcerned about the child and refuses to consider offers of help for the child's problems.
- Overtly rejects the child.

You can also report inaction of social workers to the South African Council for Social Service Professions (SACSSP). For any enquiries, please contact the SACSSP's professional conduct division at profcond2@sacssp.co.za or 012 356 8300/ 8315.

MEET CYCLING CHAMPION CAITLIN

The 17-year-old Caitlin Thompson.

Rustenburg – Rustenburg local cycling superstar Caitlin Thompson is constantly making headlines with her podium finishes.

Platinum Weekly spoke to Caitlin to find out more about her cycling journey – so to speak.

Caitlin got her first bicycle when she was still very young. It initially started out as a casual activity. “I really started cycling in 2017. I didn’t train much, but my running fitness gave me a good edge,” Caitlin said.

During the early years she mainly competed in mountain bike races and only moved to a proper entry level in late 2017. Running at that stage remained her prime focus.

In 2018 she was spotted by a keen triathlete, the late Neil Collette, who was convinced she would make a great triathlete. Caitlin added: “My running and cycling complemented the sport well and I was a respectable swimmer, so it all made sense. I started participating in triathlons in 2018 and in March that year as a first-year youth, I came 3rd at SA Champs.”

Later that year she won the youth female category at SA Duathlon Champs. Later that same year, while leading a trail run, she broke her ankle, and this put an end to her successful 2018 season. When she started training again, she found running difficult and decided to focus entirely on cycling.

And so, her first actual season of cycling stated in 2019.

Her high school career started at Bergsig Academy but due to a combination of the Covid-19 lockdowns impeding education and the demands of cycling, she left at the end of Grade 10 and moved to Teneo online schooling. This allowed her a consistent education without restrictions and provided her with the freedom and flexibility around her training and racing. The World Championships required her to be in Belgium for roughly four weeks. During this time, she was able to continue her studies online and even write exams.

When asked how she balances school and cycling she responded: “Keeping a balance can be hard at times, especially with long rides on the weekends which take up a lot of time. I really want to do well in school, to be able to study in the future, which keeps me motivated. I also know that if I just put in a little bit of hard work, I won’t have to stress or worry about falling behind.”

Her training schedule varies, but mostly it’s a six-day exercise with about 2 hours of cycling per day.

Her plans for her future cycling career include winning both the Junior Women’s ITT and Road Race Championships National titles this coming year. She would also like to take both titles for African Continental Championships, in March and one of her bigger ambitions would be to place in the top 10 of the Junior Women’s UCI Time Trial World Championships, later this year.

The athlete she looks up to is Jolanda Neff, a professional mountain biker, because of her positive attitude and determination to never give up. Caitlin’s parents are by far her biggest supporters and the title she is most proud of is the Junior Women’s Individual Time Trial Champion purely because of how much work and effort went into trying to achieve it.

She shared some advice for other aspiring cyclists: “Just continue trying to do your best. Your best is all you can give and that’s perfect! If you give your best in both training and races, you can never go wrong, regardless of the results.”
