Students forced motorists to stop their vehicles at the pedestrian crossing.

Rustenburg – The students of Orbit TVET College are fed up with having to dodge and dive oncoming traffic while using the pedestrian crossing in front of the college [Bosch Street]. “My heart always beats faster whenever I cross Bosch street at the pedestrian crossing,” student leader Kgotsofatso Simane says. Apparently, it is common for vehicles to ‘fly’ past the crossing without yielding to students wanting to cross the road. Simane told Platinum Weekly about a fellow student who had to be rushed to hospital after he was knocked down by a car at the crossing in January 2021. “The driver of the car did not stop.” Simane says that in recent weeks, a lot of students using the crossing have also complained of ‘near misses’ occurring mostly between 7:30am and 8am during peak traffic. More on page 6

Fired up for 2022

Rustenburg – The Greater Rustenburg Fire Protection Association (GRFPA) held their annual general meeting (AGM) on Saturday 19 February at Brauhaus am Dam. After the devastating fires that occurred in die region during 2021, the purpose of the GRFPA to plan and implement firebreaks and block burning as well as organised assistance in case of runaway fires, is more important than ever. “It is vital that we have these meetings with the community so people can know what is going on, and where you fit in when it comes to fire season,” said GRFPA spokesperson Debbie Snyman. Dignitaries from the Department of Forestry, Fisheries and the Environment, the North West Umbrella Fire Protection Association (NWUFPA), Working on Fire (WoF) and Working for Water (WfW) also attended the AGM. Department of Forestry, Fisheries and the Environment fire advisor Sonwabo Namba thanked the GRFPA for their resilience in running the association and the great work they are doing. NWUFPA chairperson Eric Stoch shared information and statistics about fires in the province. He also noted that the report compiled by the GRFPA was extremely comprehensive, commending them for the job they are doing in their region. Stoch also reiterated the importance of firebreaks. “I would rather fight a fire on a planned day than being called out to fight a fire when I am spending time with my family.” De Wet & De Villiers representatives shared information regarding insurance policies and the terms and conditions that apply when it comes to fires. As an example, he stated that if a fire starts on your neighbour’s farm and it spreads across to your farm, and then into another neighbour’s farm, and you have not taken reasonable measures to prevent the fire from spreading, you can be held accountable. Belonging to an FPA can make a difference. Remember that the Fire Act is a law and not only a suggestion. Membership of an FPA is voluntary for private landowners but comes with a few advantages. The GRFPA would like to encourage all rural landowners to join. It’s an association for the community by the community. Do your bit and get involved today! Cluster units are established within each FPA, and members are actively involved in planning and implementing fire breaks and block burning as well as organised assistance in case of runaway fires. All the necessary forms and information can be found on the GRFPA website at <http://grfpa.org>. The GRFPA is not a firefighting service, and all fires should be reported to the Rustenburg Fire Department on 014 590 3232/3444/3333.

‘We want these people to get paid!’

Rustenburg – The store was forced to close its doors to the public on Wednesday 2 March following a protest. The closure stems from allegations of non-payment of the wages of eight workers who were transferred from Pretoria to Rustenburg. It is also alleged that some of the workers were instructed to do garden work and not the cleaning jobs they were hired for. At around 11:00 at the protest, representatives from the Greater Rustenburg Community Forum (GRCF) and South African National Civic Organisation (SANCO) arrived and demanded fair employment conditions. Guilty Kobua from GRCF told Platinum Weekly: “The workers were not offered proper accommodation when they arrived from Pretoria. Men and women both sleep in the basement and it has been a month now. All we want is for these people to get paid, to get proper accommodation and do the job which they were hired for.” The manager of the supermarket preferred not to comment about the allegations when approached. Police officers at the scene maintained law and order while the manager engaged with the workers and representatives from GRCF and SANCO for an amicable solution.

Online payment gateway for renewal of driver and vehicle licences... BUT...

SA – The Minister of Transport, Fikile Mbalula announced the launch of an online payment gateway for renewal of driver and vehicle licences among other services. The introduction of online payments means that you can avoid long queues and simply renew online, make a payment and opt for home delivery. Although these online services do not eliminate the need for queuing, they have been introduced to improve service delivery and minimise the need for a motorist to visit a DLTC a number of times, said transport minister Fikile Mbalula.

The services include:
Motor vehicle licence renewal
Individuals and corporates will be able to register their accounts online. Once the payment is done, the disc will either be couriered or posted at an additional fee.
Driving licence card renewal
Here is the catch – Even though you will be able to pay prior to going to the licencing department, you still need to go to the licencing department to have your fingerprints taken and your eye test done.
Booking appointment for learner’s licences test and driving licence test
Once you have registered online, you can book your appointment.

To access their full range of services, visit <https://online.natis.gov.za/#/>

Raising children to succeed

John Wooden (a world-renowned basketball coach in America) defined success as “the peace of mind that is the direct result of self-satisfaction in knowing you did your best to become the best that you are capable of becoming.”

Success may differ for different people, but once you’ve had children, one’s personal goals tend to be set aside, and the success of our progenies becomes more important than one’s own success.

What is it to have a successful child?
Parents need to create a childhood that breeds success, i.e. enabling our children to become the best they can be. This doesn’t need to cost you thousands of Rands in private school fees or extracurricular activities. Past generations considered it wise to teach children to become a salary and wage earner, working in a stable job from the moment they leave school until retirement. Success was measured by how long one stayed in the same job. Consistency and stability were the favoured attributes. Then it was all about working your way up... about starting out in the business world, regardless of what the business was, and working one’s way up to the top, making steady progress up the corporate ladder. School leavers in the 21st century will probably have at least five to seven career changes over the course of their life. The Centre for Research Innovation and Future Development indicates that in 2028, 50% of today’s jobs will be replaced by artificial intelligence and that 65% of children currently in school will eventually work at jobs that don’t exist today.

What does this mean for you?
Many parents take joy in observing their child surpass them in their life in some way. It may be a specific strength or talent, a discovered passion, or a higher standard of living. We need to understand that our children today are growing up with a very different world view than what existed in the past. They desire to be self-employed, own their own businesses, and pursue creative endeavours.

Financial freedom
It’s no secret that the cost of living is rising at a faster rate than we would like to admit, and one of the most effective hedges to overcome this is to have a legitimate small business. Owning your own business allows numerous direct expenses to be claimed before taxes and results in more of your hard-earned money being used for what you intended, rather than being paid out in taxes.

An example
One such business that offers good value and growth potential is the mobile coffee industry. Starbucks is reported as stating in 2017 that “Coffee is the second highest traded commodity worldwide, second only to oil”. The validity of that statement may be questionable, but it still indicates a large quantity of coffee being traded worldwide. The culture of coffee drinking individuals in South Africa has changed dramatically over the past few years and more and more people are becoming particular about the type of coffee they drink, opting for an Americano instead of drip brewed filter, or a flat white instead of a cup topped with frothy cream. Think about any place where people gather... school sports days, markets, auctions, fund raising events, etc. Coffee could be provided at any of these events, beer or cold drinks, with some even selling mediocre coffee – but good coffee was hard to find. This led to the development of Coffee-On-The-Move™, a company that specialises in providing espresso-based coffee at corporate and leisure events. The business started as a family business in 2006. “We received on-going requests to franchise the concept and provide other families with our unique trailers, which stand out from any other available trailers,” Wayne said in an interview with Platinum Weekly. They have equipped a dozen families with their own mobile coffee shops throughout Southern Africa – including two units supplied to Zimbabwe. Their trailers are built of strong and durable, but lightweight fibreglass, and have a very appealing appearance. The transparent portion allows customers to watch their coffee being made – after all, pouring the perfect cappuccino is an art well worth watching!

It may not be sufficiently busy to provide a full-time job and income for employees, but it provides a wonderful opportunity for a family to attend sports days and functions on an ad-hoc basis and generate a bit of additional income, and at the same time provide a welcome service to the community. The advantage of a mobile coffee shop is that there are no fixed overhead costs, and the initial start-up cost is less than R200K.

Crime streak in Derby continues

Derby – And the crime spree continues in Derby...

- In once incident, a family went away for the weekend but when they came back, they found that someone broke into their bakkie and stole the radio. If that wasn't bad enough, the criminals vandalised the bakkie most likely looking for more items they could break off to sell.
- A Derby community member left his house on Monday 28 February to go to the petrol station. Everything was fine when he left but, on his return, someone entered his property and stole a car battery as well as a car battery charger. "This happened in broad daylight, I have people renting on my property and they didn't even hear the dogs bark. I was gone for 20 minutes at most," Daan Bekker said in an interview with Platinum Weekly.

- A drilling company also suffered a great loss when their company bakkie, a Toyota Land Cruiser, was stolen on 28 February. The equipment that was loaded on the back of the bakkie – also gone.

Koster – For the past nine years, Koster local Patrick Styles, 'the man with the cross', has been spotted all over South Africa. His mission started in 2013 after he had an epiphany: "God said, go out and make disciples of all the nations and that is what I aim to do with my cross. We should all return to God." Patrick solely relies on God to protect him and provide for him while on the road and he often receives help from good Samaritans that God puts on his path. His new journey started on Monday 28 February 2022 when he hit the road again to spread God's message. By the Grace of God, he arrived in Mooiooi late on 2 March and plans to walk towards Hartbeespoort and Skeerpoort next, but his route is guided by the Holy Spirit.

"If you see me next to the road – don't hoot, I prefer Coke," he jokingly said. Patrick and his wife Dez wanted to share a special message: Come to Me, all you who labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light. Matthew 11: 28 to 30 Kom na My toe, almal wat vermoeid en belas is, en Ek sal julle rus gee. Neem My juk op julle en leer van My, want Ek is sagmoedig en nederig van hart, en julle sal rus vind vir julle siele; want My juk is sag en my las is lig. Matthéüs 11: 28 tot 30

Win with Three Star Powertrade!

Rustenburg – Saturday 26 February was a great day for the community at Three Star Powertrade! Matshepi's brass band from Tlaseng village kicked off the event while the youngsters played on the jumping castles and had their faces painted. The highlight of the day was the POWER UP and WIN promotion! Customers, who had spent R1,500 or more at Three Star, were entered into the car give-away competition that Unitrade Management Services created for its Independent Store members (in this case, our very own Three Star Powertrade). The competition has been running since 2007. Unitrade Management Services is a dynamic, excellence-driven voluntary trading association. It brings together the needs of fast-moving good suppliers to get their brands to their consumers... with the needs of stores to generate sales. Three Star regional manager Wayne Labuschagne said: "This is our way to say thank you to our customers and give back to our community – by hosting our annual give-away competition in association with our partners."

She has been shopping at Three Star Powertrade since before it was even a store, when it was just a warehouse selling to traders and store owners. Over the years she has received great service and great prices from the team at Three Star which has kept her coming back for more and allowed her to enter the POWER UP competition. Her husband passed away three months ago, and she feels this is his way of helping her through a very difficult time.

The top five community entrants battled it out for the number one spot to win a brand-new Suzuki S-Presso... Compliments of Three Star Powertrade, UMS, Ekhamanazi Springs, Clover, Colgate Palmolive, Dairy Farmers SA, Danone, Diplomat Mondelez, Lucky Star, National Brands, Nestle, Pioneer, RCL, Simba, Tiger Brands and Unity. Manuela Wessels was the overall winner.

Martha Mathe won herself a wheelbarrow.

Keorapetse Masike (left) won her a mini generator handed over by Three Star store operations general manager Raymond Phathane.

The remaining four participants did not walk away empty handed. Linky Motswadi won a two-nights-weekend away at StayEasy hotel and Keorapetse Masike walked away with a mini generator. Mpho Moanakwa won herself a gift hamper and Martha Mathe was the winner of a Polana wheelbarrow.

Saam trek, saam werk, saam staan

Derby – Derby Buurtwag het op Saterdag 26 Februarie ‘n gemeenskap skouerskuur aangebied en dit was die ideale geleentheid vir die gemeenskap om mekaar en die buurtwag beter te leer ken. Met die talentvolle Jaco Smit op die verhoog en die braaivleis vure hoog, was dit ‘n gesellige samesyn. Met trots het die Derby Buurtwag hul kontrolekamer geopen. Thea Grundeling sal hier die radio’s beman en sal dien as ‘n belangrike skakel tussen die buurtwag en gemeenskap. Omdat Derby ook nie oor ‘n brandweer beskik nie is twee waterkanne beskikbaar gestel om die buurtwag by te staan ingeval van ‘n vuur nood. Patrick Styles, bekend as ‘die man met die kruis’ het die dag begin met gebed en ‘n pragtige boodskap met almal gedeel: “Ons moet bid vir mekaar en selfs vir die skelms, want God moet aan hul harte werk. Alles wat ons doen moet ons in liefde doen.” Hy het ook dankie gesê vir God wat die dag geseën het. Die Koster polisie het ook ‘n draai kom maak en kaptein Coetzer en adjudant de Beer het almal toegesprek. “Ons is baie dankbaar vir die hulp wat die buurtwag verleen. Julle sterk ons hande. Ek weet julle sal eerder in die aand saam julle familie voor die TV wil sit maar julle gaan uit en beveilig julle gemeenskap,” aldus kaptein Coetzer. Adjudant De Beer, wat nuut aangestel is oor landelike beveiliging het die gemeenskap aangemoedig om saam te werk en gesê omdat hulpbronne so skaars is, kan misdaad net onder beheer gebring word as almal hande vat. Hy het bygevoeg dat daar vergaderings met die buurtwag in die pylyn is waarby die polisie vir hul opleiding sal gee oor hoe om sekere situasies te hanteer – asook selfverdediging. Vier van die Derby Buurtwaglede het ook spesiale blou baadjies ontvang. Peet Els, Jaco Smit, Daus Pretorius en Jaco Botha kan nou met trots hul gemeenskap beveilig in hul Community in Blue baadjies. Gemeenskap Polisiëring Forum (GPF) voorsitter Solly Modisane het die baadjies oorhandig. “Ons moet saam met mekaar en saam met die polisie werk sodat ons die misdaad in ons area kan bekamp,” aldus Modisane. Baie dankie ook aan die volgende individue en besighede wat bydraes gemaak het tot die sukses van die dag en die buurtwag:

- Johan Terblanche
- Piet Botha
- DTW Voerkrale
- Mike van Niekerk
- 2D Afslaers

Baie dankie ook aan elke buurtwaglid wat hulle eie tyd en brandstof opoffer om te patroleer. ‘n Buurtwag is ‘n kernpilaar in elke gemeenskap en almal word uitgenooi om betrokke te raak. Wees waaksaam en gee om vir mekaar.

Derby Buurtwag lede, Koster polisie lede en GPF lede werk saam in die stryd teen misdaad.

Rustenburg Court still closed – 😞

Rustenburg – The Rustenburg Magistrates’ Court remained closed this week, in line with a directive from the Rustenburg Local Municipality (RLM). The municipality ordered the closure of the court on Friday 25 February 2022 following concerns about the poor state of the building as well as unsafe ablution facilities. The ceiling of the building is in a bad state while the toilets need to be refurbished. Since the directive of the closure, renovations and repairs of the building are yet to be carried out and it is highly likely that cases will be referred to the Bafokeng Magistrates’ Court in Tlhabane. The North West Department of Public Works together with the Department of Justice are engaging with the RLM for a way forward.

Bosch Street Raceway

Rustenburg – The students of Orbit TVET College are fed up with having to dodge and dive oncoming traffic while using the pedestrian crossing in front of the college [Bosch Street]. “My heart always beats faster whenever I cross Bosch street at the pedestrian crossing,” student leader Kgotsofatso Simane says. Apparently, it is common for vehicles to ‘fly’ past the crossing without yielding to students wanting to cross the road. Simane told Platinum Weekly about a fellow student who had to be rushed to hospital after he was knocked down by a car at the crossing in January 2021. “The driver of the car did not stop.” Simane says that in recent weeks, a lot of students using the crossing have also complained of ‘near misses’ occurring mostly between 7:30am and 8am during peak traffic. “Cars have to give way to pedestrians at or on the crossing, but they don’t. It is also a raised crossing, making it more visible, and unsafe for a car to cross at a high speed,” Simane says. It is against this background that traffic along Bosch Street came to a complete standstill on Wednesday 23 February, because of protesting students. The students also demanded the installation of traffic lights and a speed hump close to the crossing. “We cannot safely use this pedestrian crossing,” Simane added. Police and details from the Department of Public Safety diverted traffic from accessing the road as the protestors blocked the road. The Rustenburg Local Municipality (RLM) promised to address the concerns of the students. Says RLM spokesperson Thapelo Matebesi: “Member of the Mayoral Committee for roads and transportation councillor Lebogang Pule-Ndou and councillor Virginia Mputle (Public Safety) engaged with TVET College students regarding the need to put up painted speed humps, painted road lanes and deploying scholar patrols, in the interest of students’ safety.”

Can I cancel an agreement by email?

Rustenburg – The purpose of a contract is to provide legal certainty. A well drafted contract should crystallise the rights and obligations of the contracting parties. In the event of a dispute, the parties should be able to fall back on the terms of the contract to resolve their dispute. It would make little sense to record only parts of an agreement, whilst the rest remains verbal or unrecorded.

Parties should, therefore, ensure that their whole agreement is incorporated in the written document. Our courts have accepted the principle that where a contract has been reduced to writing, the recorded document is the exclusive memorial of the agreement.

In pursuit of certainty, it has also become general practice for contracts to contain a 'non-variation clause', also referred to as a 'Shifren clause'. Such a clause will generally provide that "no variation to, or cancellation of the agreement shall be of any force and effect unless reduced to writing and signed by the parties". The clause aims to prevent a situation where parties verbally agreed to amend a contract, and later disagree on the exact extent of their amendment.

In recent times, however, most communications are sent by email. This begs the question of whether an amendment or cancellation, done by email, will satisfy the requirement of 'signed by the parties' as required by a standard non-variation clause.

The Supreme Court of Appeal addressed this question in the case of Spring Forest Trading CC v Wilberry (Pty) Ltd. The relevant facts of the matter were that the parties concluded a written agreement containing a standard non-variation clause. The parties agreed, by way of emails, to cancel the agreement. One of the parties, at a later stage, alleged that the agreement was never validly cancelled because the cancellation was not in writing and not signed by the parties.

The party in favour of the cancellation argued that the email signature on the bottom of the emails constituted a valid signature and thereby satisfied the requirement of 'signed by the parties'. The court turned to the Electronic Communications and Transactions Act ("the Act") for an answer.

Section 13(3) of the Act provides that where an electronic signature is required, and the parties do not agree on the type of electronic signature, the requirement is met if:

- a method is used to identify the person and to indicate the person's approval of the information communicated; and
- having regard to all the relevant circumstances at the time the method was used, the method was as reliable as was appropriate for the purposes for which the information was communicated.

Section 13(1) of the Act, however, provides that where a person's signature is required by law and such law does not specify the type of signature, that requirement in relation to a data message is met only if an advanced electronic signature is used.

It is important to note that the Act caters for two types of signatures. The first, is an advanced electronic signature, which is required where the law requires a person's signature. The second, is a standard electronic signature, which is required where the parties, amongst themselves, agree that a signature is required but they do not specify the type of signature required.

The Supreme Court of Appeal held that, in as far as non-variation clauses are concerned, the requirement for a signature is imposed by the parties on themselves.

- It is, in other words, not a requirement by law and does therefore not require an advanced electronic signature. A standard electronic signature would therefore suffice, provided it meets the two requirements of identification and reliability mentioned above.

The court held that, as long as the 'data' in an email is intended by the user to serve as a signature and is logically connected with other data in the email, the requirement for an electronic signature will be satisfied. This then, so the court said, includes typewritten names of parties at the foot of emails. Should there, however, be a dispute about the reliability of the emails, or the identity of the person who sent it, the requirement of a valid standard electronic signature will not be met because it will no longer comply with the two requirements of identification and reliability. A distinction should therefore be made between cases where the owner of an email account sent the email, and where the email was sent by a hacker.

Poll: Do you have a five-year plan?

We often get the question: "where do you see yourself in the next five years?" Are you taking life day by day or setting goals that you hope to achieve within the next five years?

Yes. My plan is to do more to support the less-fortunate members of our community. I will do this by supporting and getting involved in projects aimed at improving the lives of children.

Gawie Swart

Yes. Over the next five years, I would like to assist school leavers to become more independent. Many young people who leave school struggle to find employment. Industry leaders in Rustenburg must also do more to assist them in this regard.

Hannaliza Swart

Yes. I'm involved in the rugby academy at Grenswag High School. My plan is to - within the next five years, produce players that are good enough to play in the local professional leagues.

Showcasing their equestrian talents

Rustenburg – Perfect Harmony riding school riders competed in their first South African National Equestrian Schools Association qualifier for the year on Saturday 26 February at Heartland Equestrian Park, Brits. All the riders represented their individual schools but train under Perfect Harmony’s coaches Estelle Basson and Meriska Basson.

Impala eye Gold Cup qualification

Rustenburg – Impala Rugby Club coach Joel Scherman is excited about his team’s upcoming match for a very good reason. Impala will take on Klerksdorp Rugby Club in Potchefstroom on Saturday 4 March to find out who will be crowned the champions of the Leopards Rugby Union. And apart from the bragging rights that come with such an achievement, a lot more will be at stake because the winners will compete in the 2022 edition of the Gold Cup. Impala qualified for the final last weekend when they beat Wolverines 17-12 in a tightly contested match and Scherman is looking for the same fighting spirit from his charges. “The winner will take part in the Gold Cup so this is a must-win for us. If we become champions then we will be playing in the Gold Cup at the end of the year,” he said.

Tackling drug abuse and bullying at schools

Rustenburg – Police officers from Rustenburg SAPS visited Grenville High School on Tuesday 22 February and warned learners about the dangers of engaging in alcohol and drug abuse. Rustenburg Public Safety and Department of Correctional Services representatives also shared messages to discourage bullying. “The visit to Grenville High School was part of the safer schools campaign. We will also visit other schools around Rustenburg as part of that programme,” said police spokesperson sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi. The visit was an emotional and reminiscing one for lieutenant colonel Caroline Molwana, who attended Grenville High School. Molwana, who has been transferred from Rustenburg SAPS to Marikana where she will take up the senior role of station commander, bid the learners farewell and encouraged them to work towards achieving their dreams in life.

Learners at the school were taught about the dangers of drugs and bullying.

Colourful for CANSA

Rustenburg – In support of raising awareness about cancer, members of the public could either shave their head or spray it in bright colours at Platinum Square and Waterfall Mall on Saturday 26 February and Sunday 27 February. This event was part of the annual Cancer Association of South Africa (CANSA) Shavathon fundraising event at shopping centres across the country. CANSA volunteer Liz-Mari Jansen van Vuuren said: “I have been a CANSA volunteer since 2018 and I would like to thank the public from the bottom of my heart for once again making this event so much fun.” Thank you to Platinum Square centre management’s Elize Magor and Waterfall Mall’s centre management’s Natasha Izaakse for usage of the premises. Thanks to the Pool Team and Bargain Books who gave us access to power points.

Christopher Pretorius also got his hair sprayed.

Gruelling cycling challenges

Rustenburg – Three Rustenburg Cycling Club (RCC) members pushed themselves to the limit by taking part in a gruelling four-day mountain bike race from Plettenberg Bay to Port Elizabeth (a 308km race). Charl Odendaal, Hennie Fourie and Magnus de Beer stepped up to the challenge and managed to complete the long-distance race from Wednesday 23 February to 26 February 2022. Meanwhile, the RCC was also well represented during the Berge en Dale Race held in Krugersdorp on 26 February. Caitlin Thompson finished first in the junior female category with a well-executed sprint just before the finish line underlining her dominance. Marli Labuschagne also performed exceptionally well for her second-place finish. Venessa Kleyn and Christa Venter – who also took part in the cycling race – crossed the finishing line in a time of 1:52:00 and 02:02:00 respectively. Johan Roos, Danie Lombard, Nolte Ekkerd and Johannes Kissel also thoroughly enjoyed the 109 km race. Jon Andrews – also RCC member – finished first in the Grand Master category in a time of 2:44:00.

Buitengewone atlete!

Rustenburg – Na weke van beplanning en geesvang het Rustenburg Skool vir Buitengewone Onderwys se Interskole Atletiek op Donderdag 24 Februarie plaasgevind. Vier skole het kom meeding, maar ons plaaslike atlete het nie op hulle laat wag nie en hulself goed van hul taak gekwyd. Baie geluk aan elke kind wat absoluut hul beste gegee het en almal wat medaljes ontvang het.

A clash of the football titans!

SA – This is a big one! On Saturday 5 March Orlando Pirates and Kaizer Chiefs will battle it out head-to-head at Orlando Stadium and you can bet your last Rand that most of your friends are likely to be following the action from 15:30. If you look at the current log standings, a positive result will be very important for both teams. A win for Pirates, who are on 31 points, will see them going up to third on the log while Chiefs (who have 32 points) will be out to spoil it for the Buccaneers. Chiefs will be playing for a win which will also see them moving up to second on the log – a position they could hang onto if Royal AM fail to win their match against Moroka Swallows on Sunday 6 March. But don't let all the figures and speculation confuse you – the match between these two teams is always a major event on the football calendar. May the best team win!

Matches scheduled for Saturday 5 March
Baroka FC v TS Galaxy
Baroka, who are at the bottom of the log, will be hoping to collect all three points on offer at the Peter Mokhaba Stadium. TS Galaxy, who are also not safe from relegation, are eager for maximum points. Kick-off is at 15:30.

Cape Town City v Sekhukhune United
The DHL Stadium will come alive at 17:00 when Cape Town City play against Sekhukhune United. Both sides are well poised for a finish among the top 8 teams at the end of the season.

Supersport United v AmaZulu
Just two points separate SuperSport United (26 points) from AmaZulu (28 points). This means there are likely to be fireworks when the two meet at Lucas Masterpieces Moripe Stadium. Kick-off is at 17:30.

Maritzburg United v Mamelodi Sundowns
Mamelodi Sundowns, who are favourites to win the title chase, are heavily tipped to collect all three points at the Harry Gwala Stadium. Find out at 19:30.

Sunday 6 March fixtures

- Royal AM will face Moroka Swallows at Chatsworth Stadium from 15:30 while Golden Arrows play Chippa United at Princess Magogo Stadium, also from 15:30.
- Marumo Gallants will play against Stellenbosch FC from 17:30 at Peter Mokaba Stadium to conclude the weekend's PSL fixtures.

LOCAL MMA CHAMP TAKES THE WIN

Rustenburg – Emrick ‘Samurai’ Hermann, a mixed martial arts (MMA) athlete, competed at the Gauteng Fighting Championship 90 at the Carousel on Saturday 26 February. Emrick performed great and won his fight with a submission in the first round. Emrick is a member of FightZone SA club in Rustenburg and made his club and couch Japie Hermann very proud. For more information on MMA and FightZone SA contact Japie on 083 231 5728.

Connacht vs Stormers

Trane en wyn het weer gevloei in Kaapse geledere ou grote... want hulle geliefde seuns word beroof van ‘n oorwinning in Galway teen Connacht wat die game 19-17 wen. John Dobson het gal gebrak oor die belaglike beslissings van die Ierse ref. Dobson het rede gehad vir sy uitlatings want die ref was pateties. En om die salf op die wonde te smeer word twee geelkaarte ook nog aan die Stormers wel verdienstelik toegeken. Hartseer maar waar... Met die aanbreek van rustyd het die Kapenaars 10-7 voorgeloop. ‘n Minuut na rustyd druk Manie Libbok ‘n skitterende drie en verdoel sy drie en die telling is 17-7. Maar daar het dit geëindig. Die Stormers se volgende game is op Sondag 13 Maart in Kaapstad teen Zebre.

UNITED RUGBY CHAMPIONSHIP

Bulls vs Zebre

Die Bulle wen gemaklik 45-7 teen die Italianers. Die Bulle druk ses drieë en losskakel Chris Smit is in die kol met ses doelskoppe en een strafskop vir ‘n persoonlike bydrae van vyftien punte. Zebre is maar die melkkoei in die reeks en kon nog nie een game in die huidige kompetisie wen nie. Belangrik vir die Bulle is die vyf punte wat hulle verdien het in ‘n weg-wedstryd. Die Bulle se volgende game is op 12 Maart op Loftus teen Munster.

Leinster vs Lions

Die Leeus se kans om ‘n verswakte Leinster-span te klop het skipbreuk gely. Leinster wen 21-13 en behou die boonste plek op die puntetabel. Die Leeus het uiters goed geskrum maar kon net nie afontd in die aanval nie. Ai... hierdie game gaan nog lank spook by die Leeus. Die Leeus se volgende game is op Sondag 13 Maart in Johannesburg.

Benetton vs Sharks

In Treviso klop die Durbaniete die Italianers 21-7 in ‘n allesbehalwe oortuigende manier ou grote. Met rustyd het die Sharks met 21-0 voorgeloop. Soos ‘n Ingelse kommentator tereg opgemerk het en die Haaie se vertoning opgesom het “the Sharks stutter to victory”. Benetton het sonder dertien gereelde spelers moes klaarkom wat in die Ses Nasies vir Italië diens gedoen het. Die Haaie benodig ‘n losskakel wat hulle gevaarlike agterlyn aan die gang kan kry. Die Haaie beklee tans die agste posisie op die puntetabel. Die Sharks se volgende game is op Vrydag 11 Maart in die Haaitenk teen die Scarlets.

Amogelang Huma is determined to become a professional football player.

Football runs in the Huma family

Rustenburg – The expression ‘the apple does not fall far from the tree’ is certainly true for 12-year- old Amogelang Huma, who was inspired to play football by his father. The 12-year-old striker, a member of the Rustenburg Athletico Football Club u/13 team, said he fondly remembers during his early childhood years how his father encouraged him to take up the sport. “My father used to play football in Photsaneng and sometimes I would accompany him there. I am determined to become a professional football player,” Huma said. “He still supports and encourages me. I attend training sessions after school and I am learning new things every day.” Huma, a grade 7 learner at Laerskool Rustenburg (Larries), said he has met new friends and learnt a lot of life skills by playing football. “We are taught never to give up and to always tolerate each other. This applies both when playing football or aiming to achieve your dreams in life,” he said. Daniel Ngomane, one of the coaches who have been mentoring Huma, said the young striker has potential. “He shoots well when in front of the goal and has a good technique. I am sure he will be able to score more goals this season,” says Ngomane.
