

ZEERUST ARMED ROBBERY SUSPECTS FLEE TO RUSTENBURG – ARRESTED

(The Platinum Weekly will post an update of this article on Facebook as soon as SAPS confirms more details with us)

Rustenburg – An unspecified number of suspects linked to an armed robbery in Zeerust on Wednesday 6 April has been taken in for questioning by the police. This was after social media went abuzz with reports of the N4 between Moedwil and Shylock being closed off for a short period of time. Apparently, the suspects fled Zeerust in two cars... When the road was blocked, one of the two vehicles was pulled over and the suspects were arrested. The suspects in the other vehicle reportedly ditched the vehicle and fled on foot.

According to social media buzz, the cash and guns were found in the abandoned car. Details related to the armed robbery and recovery of the car were sketchy at the time of going to print. Said police spokesperson captain Aafje Bothma: "At this stage, I can confirm the armed robbery. Two victims were allegedly robbed of an amount of money. Any further information will only be available tomorrow as police are still busy with further investigations." Bothma confirmed that some suspects linked to the heist had been taken in for questioning by the police. "We are still busy with the interrogation, and we will comment as soon as the suspects have been charged," Bothma concluded.

A little too close for comfort

Koster – P.D.I. Wildlife Rescue co-founder and snake catcher Pieter Kruger had a very close encounter when he was bitten by a snouted cobra on Wednesday 30 March. He was called out to a farm near Kosterdam to remove the cobra lurking in a bathroom. Even after years of experience with snakes, the cobra managed to outwit him as he was trying to retrieve it. He tried to pull away, but it was too quick and bit him on his right hand. "This is not my first encounter with these snakes, and I have become almost immune to their venom," Kruger said in an interview with Platinum Weekly.

A snouted cobra that Pieter Kruger caught.

The venom of the snouted cobra is both neurotoxic and cytotoxic and may cause some tissue damage. Luckily Kruger's calm demeanour and quick action only left him with swollen, painful hand for a few days and not any permanent damage.

Knowing exactly what to do in a situation like this also made a big difference so he shared a few tips of what to do if someone accidentally get bitten by a snake: "The most important thing is to remain calm and make sure the victim's airway remains open. Place the wound under running water and ensure that it flows away from the wound."

Getting the necessary treatment as soon as possible is very important so call for help. If possible, try to identify the snake, you can look at its markings and the shape of its head. This can help doctors to make sure that they administer the correct antivenom. You can also call the hospital beforehand and tell them the patient is coming so that they start the treatment as soon as you arrive.

He also advised to never cut, squeeze or try to suck out the venom. There are a lot of old wives' tales out there like drinking milk or sucking out the venom. Never cut, squeeze or suck the wound.

If you see a snake in your home, immediately call a snake catcher. Do not try to pick it up or trap it, but keep an eye on it – from a safe distance so that you can tell the catcher exactly where to find it. Snakes are generally shy and will not attack unless provoked. It's best to not violate their territory and let them be. Instead, carefully get everyone including your pets out of the room immediately. Shut the door and fill the gap underneath with a towel.

P.D.I. Wildlife Rescue often gets called out to snakes. They catch the snakes and then release them in more 'snake friendly' areas like open fields away from homes and people. They don't charge for their services but request a donation, so that they can continue their good work that not only includes snakes but other wildlife as well. They also assist in training aspiring game rangers who don't have the necessary funds to study, a service they can only continue with the assistance of the community.

Mbali and Danie saved the day

Rustenburg – Mbali Mahlangu (17) and Anton’s Towing tow truck operator Danie Appelgryn has been recognised as true heroes by ER24 paramedics after they went out of their way to assist victims of a car accident on Saturday 2 April.

Mbali was just hanging out with friends in the complex where she stays when she heard a terrible crash. She was the first one on scene and found two vehicles which collided at the crossing of the R24 and Drakensberg Road. Two people were lying in the ground next to the one car, and without hesitation, she rushed to their aid. “My daughter is not really someone that will do something like that, but God gave her the strength and courage to go and help,” Mahlangu’s mother Boitumelo Mahlangu said in an interview with Platinum Weekly.

Appelgryn arrived shortly after. “When I arrived on scene and saw the state of the vehicle, I knew the people needed help urgently, so I also called ambulance services. Mbali was sitting with the one of the injured, and I was sitting with the other, encouraging them to stay calm and conscious,” Appelgryn said.

Once the ambulances arrived, the injured were loaded in and transported to nearby hospitals.

“These two deserve recondition for what they did. They not only helped; they saved lives. If it wasn’t for these two who reacted so quickly, the victims wouldn’t have survived,” ER24 general manager Marchant Jacobs said.

Platinum Weekly reached out to the older brother of one of the injured who confirmed that he is out of the ICU but still in hospital.

Mbali originally considered studying law but now added paramedics to her list of possible future careers.

Anton’s Towing tow truck operator Danie Appelgryn assisted in keeping two people who were seriously injured in an accident, alive.

Beware of rocks in the road

Brits – Two people traveling on the N4 fell victim to armed robbers at around 2am in the morning on Wednesday 29 March. A 69-year-old man and his friend were near the Brits Plaza tollgate when they hit rocks that were placed in the road. They stopped to investigate and were overpowered by six men who robbed them of their cash, two cell phones and a firearm. Police spokesperson captain Aafje Botma confirmed that the suspects were armed with a firearm and that one of the men was stabbed in the process. Police are investigating the matter.

Regional manager, South African National Roads Agency SOC Limited (SANRAL) Northern Region Progress Hlahla said: “SANRAL notes the information on the incident and would like to indicate that this is a law enforcement matter. Such incidents by nature should be reported to the relevant law enforcement bodies for assistance. SANRAL’s Routine Road maintenance (RRM) teams patrol SANRAL roads regularly and remove any debris from the road. Their details are available on construction boards that are in the road reserve.”

Rustenburg – Platinum Weekly was made aware of a man pretending to be a lodge owner in our area, so we set out to investigate. We ended up going down a rabbit hole of scams. The audacity of this serial scammer is mind boggling. We will be placing only one or two of his scams in our paper per week. At the time of going to print, we already interviewed several of his victims. This serial scammer is also extremely dangerous and armed. He was recorded online, taking out his gun and threatening to shoot another man.

His scams almost play out like a movie... except it's not. It's real life and it's real people who lost real money. It is a pity, however, that only some of his victims have opened criminal cases at SAPS. In some of the cases his scams appear to be nothing more than a power play... a need to impress the ladies...

More and more victims are coming forward and Platinum Weekly aims to expose all of his scams in the weeks ahead. We hope to warn people about his modus operandi, so that they don't get caught in his web of lies. Hopefully he will be brought to book soon so that we can reveal his identity.

To protect his victims, we will keep them anonymous.

The lodge owner... 'Bielie van die Bosveld'

Mr. Serial Scammer booked into a lodge in Boshhoek for a weekend away. He must have enjoyed his stay because a few months later he made another booking at the same lodge. When he visited the second time, he first tried to negotiate a better rate with one of the owners. She – victim number one (1), eventually gave in and gave him and the lady that accompanied him R200 discount on the booking. Not even an hour later... He asked the owners of the lodge if they would be interested in selling the lodge, which they were not. He also enquired about buying some of their wildlife. Mr. Scammer and his party spent the weekend at the lodge and left.

Later that week the owner received a strange message, asking her to please tell *Mary that her mother is trying to reach her. She didn't know a Mary, so she informed the sender that they have the wrong number. The sender turned out to be a relative of Mary. The person replied that they are 'definitely at the right place' and that Mary was supposed to foreman that he does not want Mary to find out that he was paying for her.

Turns out that Mr. Scammer lured *Mary to the lodge with promises of a job, he even provided her with a contract. After that the owner received various phone calls about people who were also told that they got the job. Apparently, he made TikTok videos of himself at the lodge to advertise the jobs, and there were some cash benefits to this scheme for Mr. Scammer, as some had to pay for the job.

interview with her at a restaurant. The job sounded almost too good to be true and came with fantastic benefits... a salary of R15,000 a month, company car, company phone and accommodation as well as a slaughtered sheep a month. She had to manage his farm(s). She was called for a second interview at a restaurant where he told her that she got the job. She was very excited and ready to start on 1 February.

While making the arrangements for everything they started to become friends. He phoned her one night and told her that his daughter has Covid-19 and that he is worried because she of her asthma. A few days later he told her that his daughter is in hospital and the very next day she received a call from him, where he told her that his daughter has died – he even invited her to the funeral, but she declined. Apparently, his daughter is alive and well.

A few days later he told her about his diamond mine in Kimberly, and that he really wants to help her to make a little more money. He offered her the opportunity of a lifetime in which she would make a hefty profit by investing in a diamond. Putting her trust in him, after all he was now her 'boss' and they became friends, she could trust him. She paid over all her savings for the so-called diamond and then... never heard from Mr Serial Scammer again.

He operates all over the show. If some of these stories sound familiar to you, please let us know about it. Go and open up a case at your nearest police station so that this dangerous man can be brought to book.

In part two we will expose more of his scams.

Names have been changed to protect the victims.

CAR HIJACKERS LEAVE DUO STRANDED

Brits – A 42-year-old man and his father were robbed off a truck, cash and personal belongings by six suspects in Brits. In the wake of this and other hijacking incidents, police in the North West province urges motorists to refrain from offering lifts to strangers. "The robbery left the man and his father, who had travelled from Gauteng, stranded in Brits after an encounter with the suspects," said police spokesperson lieutenant colonel Amanda Funani.

Non-compliant car dealerships fined

Rustenburg – A number of second-hand car dealerships in Rustenburg were fined a total of R28,000 for breaching various laws under the Second-Hand Goods Act. A visit to the non-compliant dealerships was conducted during a multi-disciplinary and crime intelligence driven operation to eradicate the buying and selling of stolen goods on Wednesday 30 March 2022. Police, in partnership with the Department of Immigration, Telkom CPI, Motor Industry Ombudsman, Eskom, Rapid Rail, Transnet and other stakeholders worked hand in glove to uproot crime during the blitz. "Fines were issued for non-compliance and for contravention of Section 2(1), Section 11, Section 15, Section 21(1), Section 21(7), and Section 28(2)(b) – failure to register, failure to renew certificates, failure to display certificates, failure to keep proper records, failure to make entries, failure to rectify on demand of SAPS," said police spokesperson captain Elsabe Augoustides. On Thursday 31 March fines amounting to R8,500 were also issued to non-compliant car dealerships that were visited in Brits.

Rustenburg – Mammone Aphiri won the title of Ms. Plus Intercontinental 3rd Runner-up 2022 which was held in Houston, Texas from Friday 11 March to Saturday 12 March. The evening dress, which landed Aphiri the title of ‘Ms Plus Intercontinental evening gown winner’ was created by Relebohile Malinga from Marikana.

Aphiri was the only finalist from Africa when she competed against several other international finalists. She has been in the pageant industry for more than 40 years and her journey for Miss Plus World started in 2020 with the national competition that was held in Bloemfontein, after which she was on her way to the states. She made it through the preliminary stage competition and into the finals. Her purple dress which is covered in sequins was a showstopper at the event and had the judges in awe. It is the first time that anyone from Africa has won this coveted title. Aphiri had this to say about fashion designer Relebohile Malinga: “After a few setbacks with designers, a friend referred me to Malinga. When I called her, she was visiting in the Eastern Cape but convinced me to wait for her to get back.” Malinga was impressed when she completed the dress in two days. Aphiri added: “I am not easy to satisfy, and I know exactly what I want. Malinga delivered above and beyond my expectations. She is blessed with a God-given talent. This trophy is not just for me, it’s for her too. God brought us together.” Malinga stays in a two-bedroom house with her husband. She turned one of the bedrooms into her studio. “My husband is my biggest supporter. I’m really blessed. When he sees that I’m busy working he immediately jumps in to assist with the duties around the house,” Malinga said. Although she has no formal training, she has taken the limelight many times with her designs. She also made the dress of the winner of Miss Teen Plus 2021, Pheladi Matlala. She taught herself to sew. After she saw a gap in the plus-size clothing industry, she started to specialise in it. She also designed and made Aphiri’s Couture Denim. Like the rest of her designs and work, it turned out amazing. You can contact Malinga on 071 172 2233 if you are in the market for a designer plus size outfit

EVERY CHILD DESERVES A LOVING HOME

Do you have what it takes to become a foster parent?

Rustenburg – Foster care is not a permanent solution but rather a long-term opportunity to provide a loving stable home for children who were abandoned, orphaned, traumatised or abused. Children’s homes in Rustenburg are reaching their full capacity and there is a dire need for homes where these children can be taken care of, provided for and be loved. Taking in a child is not as simple as just having a spare bedroom. It is a big responsibility. These children often require more emotional support. They need foster parents who can understand their situation and deal with it in a loving in caring manner. Families need to be financially stable to provide for these children – food, clothes and medical needs all form part of the responsibility. They say it takes a village to raise a child and that is why it is very important that foster parents have a strong support system of friends and family. This might sound overwhelming at first, but Rustenburg Child and Family Welfare social workers will always be there to provide help, training and advice. They will teach foster parents proper methods of dealing with challenges. You will never be alone in this. If you meet these requirements and would like to help and make a meaningful difference or if you need more information, contact Rustenburg Child and Family Welfare on 014 537 2014/2072.

Department warns against vaccinating animals for foot-and-mouth disease

North West – Following a media statement released by minister Thoko Didiza confirming the outbreak of foot-and-mouth disease in the province, the North West Department of Agriculture and Rural Development also confirmed on 23 March that this outbreak has affected farms in JB Marks Local Municipality (Tlokwe & Ventersdorp).

The affected farms have been placed under quarantine.

On 4 April, another five farms have been quarantined outside Potchefstroom. The conditions of the quarantine are that there will be no movement of animals into, though, and from the affected farms. The objective of the quarantine is to curb and prevent the spread of the disease.

Foot-and-mouth disease is a viral disease that causes blisters and sores in the hooves, mouth, and dental pad of cloven-hoofed animals.

Vaccination for foot-and-mouth disease in South Africa is strictly regulated by the government. Only with approval from the director of Animal Health, the use of vaccines without authorisation can result in vaccinated animals testing positive and being classified as infected resulting in further measures being imposed on the farm.

All vaccines that are used for this purpose need to be registered and authorised for such purpose and as such, they are only in the hands of government officials. In the North West, vaccination of cattle and pigs against foot-and-mouth disease is not permitted and is therefore illegal. The sale of such vaccines is also illegal.

Says doctor Langa Madyibi: “Farmers are advised to inform any local state veterinary office should they be approached with a sale of foot-and-mouth vaccines that are not registered”.

All farmers, livestock owners, members of industry and are urged to use caution when sourcing cattle, ensure that you know the health of the animals you are investing in and where possible, seek a health attestation from the seller’s veterinarian confirming the health status of the animals you are buying.

NW Department of Agriculture and Rural Development press release extracts

Did you know?

Foot and Mouth Disease is one of the most serious livestock diseases. Humans are only extremely rarely infected by foot-and-mouth disease virus (FMDV).

The livestock foot-and-mouth disease virus is different to that of hand, foot and mouth disease (HFMD), a common infection in children that causes sores called ulcers inside or around their mouth and a rash or blisters on their hands, feet, legs, or buttocks. It can be painful, but it isn't serious (if treated).

Innovative CPR via video call could save your life

Mouth-to-mouth no longer the only way to administer CPR

SA – As a first for Africa, a new digitally enabling life-saving service puts callers phoning from the scene of a medical emergency (via video calling) with trained Netcare 911 emergency healthcare providers to demonstrate and guide them through the cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) technique until paramedics arrive.

Particularly since the start of the Covid-19 pandemic, members of the public may be hesitant to perform mouth-to-mouth resuscitation on anyone other than an immediate family member in an emergency – however this aspect is no longer considered necessary.

“Few people are aware that CPR does not require mouth-to-mouth resuscitation, as recent findings show ‘hands only’ CPR can be as effective as the traditional technique involving giving the patient rescue breaths,” says Shalen Ramduth, Netcare 911’s operations director.

The American Heart Association now recommends that members of the public perform ‘hands only’ CPR using chest compressions alone if an adult collapses and they are not in a healthcare setting.

Life-saving skills in the caller’s hands

“Even if you have never done CPR before, Netcare 911’s national emergency operations centre is putting life-saving skills into the hands of the public with this new, innovative application of telehealth video call technology,” says Zita van Zyl, Netcare 911’s critical care operations manager.

When a caller reports an emergency requiring CPR to Netcare 911’s EOC on 082 911, the coordinator immediately initiates the video calling process by sending the caller a link via SMS which connects to a live secure video platform. The caller clicks on the link to connect with the Netcare 911 emergency care providers, enabling them to see and hear each other.

“A qualified health provider, a registered nurse or paramedic, then demonstrates the relevant CPR technique to use for an adult, child or an infant on an appropriately sized mannequin representing the patient. All the while, a case manager coaches the caller to copy their actions to perform CPR correctly on the patient at the scene.

“Thanks to the visual element of the two-way video link, the caller can more accurately follow the CPR technique required, while our ‘CPR coach’ provides informed and detailed feedback to the caller to guide their CPR efforts,” says Van Zyl.

“Through this easy-to-use service, we hope more South Africans will gain the confidence to get involved to assist a person in need of life-saving resuscitation. It is less daunting to attempt CPR if you can copy a professional’s actions, and all the time the caller is being encouraged and coached through every step to help ensure they are doing it correctly, even if the caller has had no prior training,” Ramduth adds. “This can buy precious time to save the heart and brain by keeping the blood supply moving around the patient’s body until paramedics are on scene to take over, which can improve outcomes exponentially.”

The Netcare 911 live video link telehealth service is provided through the secure Netcare VirtualCare platform, with all data encrypted to protect the caller, ensure patient privacy and protect confidential information. Using the platform does not require an App to be downloaded and is very user friendly, yet secure.

Rustenburg Mall looking for local model

Africa Marimba Band’s Nomsa Nkomo, Mathhogonolo Manamela and Caroline Moshoeshee at the opening of the Rustenburg Mall on 28 April 2021.

Rustenburg – As a show of appreciation to the Rustenburg community that has supported them since the first day they opened their doors for business, Rustenburg Mall will be embarking on a fashion model search aimed at promoting and showcasing local talent.

Rustenburg Mall centre manager Juan Palm said the search would be part of the activities to celebrate their first birthday.

The mall – which opened its doors to the public on 28 April 2021 – brought convenience to shoppers living in Rustenburg North, Geelhoutpark and Tlhabane by providing a one-stop shopping complex to cater for all their needs.

“Our first birthday is coming up and we are celebrating it with an amazing photo or model search campaign. We will invite customers to become our ambassadors,” Palm said. “We want to tell the story of local role players, leaders, mentors, creatives, talents and those who change and influence lives for the better,” he added.

Can the employer dismiss an employee for refusing to testify?

[Case study]

The employee was appointed as an assistant administrator in 2012 and was later promoted to human resources admin clerk.

While busy performing her duties, the employee overheard raised voices in a colleague’s office. She then rushed in to separate the colleagues, one of whom was Mr X.

As a result of the incident, Mr X was subjected to a disciplinary hearing and subsequently dismissed. The employee was instructed to attend the hearing to testify, and she refused. Mr X then referred the dispute to the CCMA.

The employee was also subjected to a disciplinary hearing and dismissed for disobeying reasonable instruction and leaking confidential information. The employee referred a dispute to the CCMA, alleging that her dismissal was unfair.

At the arbitration hearing, the commissioner ruled a sanction short of dismissal was the appropriate sanction, and he issued a final warning valid for six months.

The employer was not happy with the outcome, and he referred the dispute to the Labour Court. The Labour Court arrived at the same decision which the arbitrator came at but with different reasons. The employer was still not satisfied, and he referred the dispute to the Labour Appeal Court. The Labour Appeal Court noted that both the CCMA and the Labour Court significantly relied on subpoena issuing in circumstances where the employee refused to testify. The court ruled that the fact that no subpoena was issued does not mean that the employee cannot be disciplined.

The Labour Appeal Court concluded that the employee was guilty of misconduct in the absence of a valid and reasonable explanation. The appropriate sanction is dismissal, considering that the employee’s failure to testify constitutes a challenge to the employer’s authority.

The appeal was upheld, and the employee was dismissed.

Poll: Do you know how to do CPR?

Cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) is an emergency procedure that can help save a person's life if their breathing or heart stops. It's a lifesaving technique that very few people know how to do...

Yes. Fortunately, I was trained on how to perform CPR while I was still in primary school as a learner. Over the years, I have made a point of refreshing my knowledge of the procedure via first aid courses and social media like YouTube.
Emmanuel Musonza

Yes. I've attended first aid training courses. I know how to do heart massaging and mouth-to-mouth, but I will have to go for a refresher course so that I am able to re-acquaint myself with the proper techniques of CPR.
Craig Olivier

Yes. When my baby was just a few months old, it was very challenging. As a new mom, I had to learn how to do infant and child CPR.

ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING CONTRIBUTIONS RATES

Item	Description		Rate Excl VAT 2020/2021	Percentage In- crease 2020/2021	Rate Excl VAT 2021/2022 CPI 3.9%	Percentage Increase 2022/2023	Rate Excl VAT 2022/2023 CPI 4.5%	Unit
1,	AFTER DIVERSITY MAXIMUM DEMAND (ADMD) VALUES ADMD's applicable for the calculation of engineering contribution rates will be as follows: Description ADMD
	Residential	As per NRS 069 and NRS 034 for the applicable consumption class
	Hotel, Guest House or equivalent	80 VA/m²
	Business, Office or equivalent	80 VA/m²
	Light Industrial, Garage or equivalent	40 VA/m²
	Educational or equivalent	20 VA/m²
	Devotional, agricultural, nursery, scrap yard or equivalent	20 VA/m²
2,	MAXIMUM DEMAND (IN KVA) CALCULATION
2.1	General note:
2.1.1	The higher of the value calculated at secondary transformation level by: 1) The Developer's appointed Professional Electrical Engineer, or 2) The value as determined by the applicable formula below according to the development's zoning The RLM may advise the customer where it is deemed necessary for the customer to increase its notified
2.1.2	maximum demand.
2.1.3	Maximum demand may only be lowered by lowering town planning rights Where town planning rights cannot be lowered and a developer insists on a maximum demand lower than figures calculated according to 2.1.1 then the developer shall register a servitude of constraint in the title deed of the property concerned.
2.1.5	A maximum demand shall be calculated for each legal property, or notarially tied property. In the case of new township or a mixed-use development a consolidated maximum demand may be calculated in terms of item 2.07 for the entire development.
2.2	Residential development
2.2.1	As determined according to Formula in par 4.2.2 of NRS 034-1:2001, as amended from time from time to time.
2.2.2	Parameters a, b and c are determined as per table 3a of NRS 034-1:2001 as amended from time to time, for standard ADMD values.
2.2.3	Parameters for a and b for a given circuit breaker size c shall be otherwise determined in terms of the formulae set out in NRS 034-1:2001, as amended from time to time.
2.3	Commercial, Governmental and other non-domestic loads, excluding industrial loads: Maximum demand (in kVA) = ADMD (in kVA/m 2 from Table 1) x FAR x Stand area (in m 2) Where FAR is the Floor to Area Ratio, i.e. the area of total building floor area divided by total stand area. The total building floor area shall be deemed to include all lettable areas, including common building areas.
2.4	Light Industrial: Maximum demand (in kVA) = ADMD (in kVA/m 2 from Table 1) x FAR x Stand area (in m 2)
2.5	Heavy Industrial: As determined by the developer's consulting engineer (Professional Electrical Engineer)
2.6	Special loads: Special loads are deemed to be loads associated with special zoning such as storage garages, cemeteries, churches. The higher of the value calculated at secondary transformation level by: 1. 13.8 kVA (equivalent to 60 A single phase) 2. the developer's appointed Professional Electrical Engineer
2.7	Mixed-use loads: Any combination of the above, with diversity factors applied or composite load curves summated to determine the annual coincident maximum demand of the saturated development (i.e. for the full development when all properties have been developed). Diversification factors shall be applied at secondary transformation level.
2.8	Phased developments For phased developments, any combination of the above, subject thereto that Council has approved such phased development and the payment of contributions in respect of each phase.
3,	ENGINEERING CONTRIBUTIONS Increase with 4.6% CPI as per Nersa guidelines 14 May 2020 as forecasted by the Bureau of Economic Research for 20/21. Engineering contributions shall be calculated by multiplying the determined demand in kVA by the rate per kVA stated for the appropriate point of connection below:
3.1	For High voltage connections 88 kV
3.1.1	For a connection directly to the 88 kV busbars of a primary intake-substation: In addition, the developer pays for the dedicated infrastructure, being a full 88 kV feeder bay inclusive of busbar isolator, circuit breaker, CTs and VTs, line isolator, metering requirements, jumpers, clamps, protection relays and the 88 kV line.	171.54	3.90%	178.23	4.50%	186.25		per kVA
3.2	For medium voltage connections (11 & 33 kV) from the urban network
3.2.1	For a connection directly to the 33 kV busbars of a substation: In addition, the developer pays for the dedicated infrastructure, being a 33 kV feeder bay inclusive of circuit breaker, CTs and VTs, metering requirements, protection relays and 33 kV cable.	516.72	3.90%	536.88	4.50%	561.04		per kVA
3.2.2	For a connection directly to the 11 kV busbars of a substation: In addition, the developer pays for the dedicated infrastructure, being an 11 kV feeder bay inclusive of circuit breaker, CTs and VTs, metering requirements, protection relays and 11 kV cable.	2 966.46	3.90%	3 082.15	4.50%	3 220.84		per kVA

NCOP embarks on Provincial Week programme

Parliament – Permanent delegates to the National Council of Provinces (NCOP) visited their respective provinces from Tuesday 29 March to 1 April for a Provincial Week programme, themed Assessing State capacity to respond to the needs of communities.
The 2022 Provincial Week is a high-impact oversight programme aimed at responding to the challenges of state capacity in the provinces. It is further intended to afford permanent delegates to the NCOP with an opportunity to return to their provinces to assess delivery of services to citizens.
The NCOP delegates, together with their provincial legislature counterparts, spent the week interacting with municipalities on interventions to improve governance challenges and the state of service delivery.

The provincial focus areas which are aimed at addressing issues affecting the provinces are as follows:
• Limpopo: Capacity to address structural constraints facing small-scale farmers and SMMEs, especially in the agricultural sector to assist them to deal with biophysical factors such land ownership, market access and affordable support to deal with other price of inputs such as fertilizer, herbicides, irrigation, product transport, and other natural constraint such as global warming.
• North West: Investment in mining/ renewable energy/ state capacity to build, upgrade and maintain roads, including visiting road infrastructure projects.

Impala Rugby Club women's team in thrilling draw

Rustenburg – Impala Rugby Club women's team played to a 10-10 draw when they hosted Ikgang in a lively match on Saturday 2 April. The match was played in Rustenburg and is part of a wider initiative by the two clubs to promote the development of women's rugby. Women's rugby is often overshadowed by the men's version of the sport and Impala are looking to change this narrative.

"It was a good match, and I am happy that our women's team played their first match," said Impala Rugby club chairman Wynand Burger. "The ladies and the crowd enjoyed the match and, as the score suggests, the match was a tightly contested affair," he added. "Players who would like to train with our women's team are more than welcome to join us," Burger said.

Leane Cilliers before her injury.

Without surgery, Leane Cilliers will have to spend the rest of her life on crutches.

Help Leane get back on her feet

Rustenburg – Leane Cilliers's love for sport started at the young age of eight. She started to excel, especially in netball, athletics and javelin. "I love the action, being outdoors and the feeling of success after a tough game," she said. Sadly, at the young age of 15, her life and sports career changed forever on Saturday 12 February when she injured her left knee during netball trials. A magnetic resonance imaging (MRI) showed that her anterior cruciate ligament (ACL) is completely disrupted. Cilliers is now permanently on crutches and if she does not receive the necessary operation, she will never be able to do any sport again and spend the rest of her life on crutches. Her dreams of becoming a veterinarian, biokinetics or doing physiotherapy on animals will have to be placed on hold. "Not being able to do sports has had a very negative impact on my life. It also put a strain on my social life as I can't hang out with my friends like a normal teenager, I can't go on tours, and I don't feel included anymore. It feels like I am not good enough," Cilliers explained. Her school accommodated her by allowing her to stay in one class, so she does not have to move around. Once she receives the surgery, she will have to go for another six to eight weeks of rehabilitation, and then after eight months to a year, her life will slowly but surely return to normal. Her surgery and road to recovery will cost approximately R142 385.51 and without a medical aid these funds have to be raised with the help of the community. Cilliers's mother Yolanda Joubert has launched various projects to help raise funds, but they still have a very long way to go to get to the full amount.

If you can assist Cilliers with the funds needed or if you would like more information, contact Joubert on 060 762 1796.

Let the games begin!

SA – If, like me, you are football fan, then I'll bet you also can't wait to watch the quarterfinals of the Nedbank Cup live at the stadiums! Yes, life for the sport fanatic who enjoys cheering their team to victory (or crying with them in defeat) while seated in the grandstands is back to normal. Nothing beats the atmosphere of watching live football action at the stadiums. In case you didn't know, up to 50% of spectators are now allowed into the stadiums to watch football matches, after Covid-19 regulations were revised by the government. So, with the Nedbank Cup heating up to the quarter finals, the big question is: Will the 2021 Nedbank Cup champions Tshakhuma Tsha Madzivhandila (TTM) go all the way and successfully defend their title? Find out as they face Supersport United this Friday 8 April at Thohoyandou Stadium in a match that will be one of the drawcards of the quarterfinals. TMM have certainly fired the warning shots and have proved they are capable of going all the way to the final by achieving a 3-0 victory over Sinenkani in the last stage of this competition.

Nedbank Cup fixtures:

Friday 8 April

- TTM vs SuperSport United at Thohoyandou Stadium (kick-off is at 19:00)

Saturday 9 April

- Gallants FC vs Baroka FC at Peter Mokaba Stadium (kick-off is at 15:00)
- Mamelodi Sundowns vs Summerfield Dynamos at Loftus Versfeld (kick-off is at 19:00)

Sunday 10 April

- Royal AM vs University of Pretoria at Chartsworth Stadium (kick-off is at 15:00)

2de ry van links: Christiaan vd Bergh, Zulu Khumalo, Juan-Dré Roos, MC Smit, GJ Smuts, Ian van Brakel, Duan Nieuwenhuizen en Clayton Plaatjies.

Loads of fun at Die Groot Trap

Rustenburg – Two members of the Rustenburg Cycling Club (RCC) enjoyed participating in ‘Die Groot Trap’ on Sunday 3 April 2022. The cycling competition, held at Time Square Casino, was hosted by Groot FM. Christo and Suzette van Staden enjoyed the 105km race. The pair put in a commendable effort on their tandem bike and completed the race in 03:28.

UNITED RUGBY CHAMPIONSHIP

Sharks vs Dragons

In die Haaitenk wen die Haaie weer hul ondersteuners se harte terug en verslind die Dragons met 51-3. Die tuisspan was met rustyd reeds 22-6 voor op die telbord. Werner Kok het sy beste game nog vir die Sharks gespeel en druk seker een van die beste drieë in die kompetisie. Curwin Bosch het beter vertoon op 10 en sal hopelik voortbou op sy vertoning. Die Haaie speel volgende teen die Leeus in Durban – dit gaan beslis ‘n groot poging van hulle kos om die maanhare van die Leeus vas te knoop!

Lions vs Edinburgh

Die Jo’burgers behaal ‘n verrassende oorwinning teen die sterk span van Edinburgh en wen 15-9, hulle vierde agtereenvolgende oorwinning. Die Skotte het met halftyd 6-5 voorgeloopt. Maar die Leeus het karakter en veggees in die tweede helfte getoon. Jordan Hendrikse het weer op 10 puik ruggas gespeel en teken tien van sy span se punte aan met ‘n drie, strafskop en doelskop. Die Leeus maak ook dan deure oop vir die ander SA spanne as hulle die groot name ontnem van punte op die log en is tans in die twaalfde plek. Die Leeus sal met baie selfvertroue Durban toe reis vir hul ontmoeting met die Haaie eerskomende Saterdag.

Bulls vs Ulster

Die Bulle het voor “25,000 vrolike toeskouers” in ‘n harde game daarin geslaag om die hoog aangeskrewe Ulster met 34-16 te klop. Die Bulle het meer as 160 duikslae uitgeoefen en het net 41% balbesit gehad. Die Bulle het eers in die tweede helfte beheer oorgeneem en goeie ruggas opgedis. Uitblinkers vir die Bulle was die vier drie-drukkers:

Marcell Coetzee, Johan Grobbelaar, Kurt-Lee Arendse en Madosh Tambwe. Johan Grobbelaar is tans een van die beste hakkers in die land. ‘n Gewese held van Loftus, Duane Vermeulen, in ‘n Ulster trui, het na vyftig minute maar gaan stort, moeg geboelie. Die Bulle reis die naweek Kaapstad toe om die noord/suid derby vete teen die Stormers te gaan voortsit. Watertandlekker vir die fynproewers!

Stormers vs Ospreys

Die Kaap bly Hollands en die wyn is mos maar lekker daar. Die Stormers klop die Ospreys 29-13 en was met rustyd reeds 22-6 voor. Die skakelpaar van die Stormers, Paul de Wet en Manie Libbok was kookwater. De Wet hou tans die Springbok skrummie Herschel Jantjies uit die beginspan en mens kan sien hoekom. Manie Libbok het op 10 weer geskitter en is ook aangewys as die speler van die wedstryd. Dan moet mens ook die naam Leolin Zas noem. Hierdie mannetjie is Bok-materiaal en tans een van die beste vleuels in die land. Die Stormers speel gasheer vir die Bulle eerskomende Saterdag en is blykbaar reg vir die outjies van Pretoria.

Ander uitslae:

- Glasgow Warriors 40-12 Zebre
- Benetton 17-21 Connacht
- Munster 19-24 Leinster
- Scarlets 35-20 Cardiff

Bepalings:

- Stormers 14:00 Bulls
 - Sharks 16:05 Lions
 - Cardiff 16:10 Scarlets
- Lekker ruggas op die spyskaart manne en maninne. Braai en lawaai en gaan groot!

Nag ou grote...

Groot jolyt by Kinder Karnaval!

Rustenburg/ Kroondal – Die Kinder Karnaval op 2 April, aangebied by Humble Hearts op die ou Pretoria pad (R104), was 'n reuse sukses. Die boeresport aktiwiteite was beslis die hoogtepunt van die dag en het oud en jonk behoorlik laat sweet! Daar was toutrek, aartappelresies, sakresies, kruiwastoot asook eier-in-lepelresies. Die kleingoeë het ook al te lekker deelgeneem aan inkleurkompetisies en het baljaar in die swembad – en die weer was perfék! Toe die son op sy warmste was het die kleingoeë vergader by die poppekas. Twee van Rietfontein Valley Horse Trails se perde het ook avontuur voorsien met begeleide uitstappies. (Kontak hulle gerus op 063 409 9412 of 076 413 4078.) Daar was verskeie stalletjies; Beauty for Ashes juwele stalletjie, 'n biltong hoekie, Shelly's Bibs met babakleertjies en allerlei baba items, aartappel op 'n stokkie en ander eetgoed... en natuurlik Coffee-On-The-Move met hulle bobaas boeretroos en groot koffie-verseidenheid. Die Rustenburg dierebeskermingsvereniging (DBV/SPCA) het ook 'n stalletjie gehad vir bewusmaking. Aldus organiseerder van die dag, Rina du Plessis, "Dit was 'n groot voorreg om die geleentheid te hou ter fondsinsameling van Rietfontein Grootfontein Kromrivier Buffelsfontein (RGKB) landelike beheersvereniging. Baie dankie vir die gemeenskap se ondersteuning."

Die manne van ER24 was aan diens; paramedikuste Kagiso Mphela en Mohamed Bulbulia.

Van links: Keryn, Auralea (mimiekunstenaar vir die dag) and Isabella Langford.

Jeanri Pretorius stoot haar "kruwa" – ene Abigail Marx. Die kruiwastoot was vet pret!

Op hul beurt sal die vereniging die fondse vir veiligheid, pad-opknapping en dies meer aanwend in die area. RGKB se leuse, vorentoe met integriteit, voeg beslis daad by woord. Hul aktiwiteite, soos uiteengelê in hul algemene jaarvergadering sowat drie weke gelede, het gewys wat hulle die vorige finansiële jaar uitgerig het, en hulle het ook hul planne vir die komende jaar voorgelê. Aan die einde van die Kinder Karnaval is 'n WhatsApp veilig ook van stapel gestuur vir 'n smulkekker biltong ruiker. Teen 'n minimum R50 bodverhoging is die biltong-lot geveil vir R1,000!

Gerhard du Plessis maak skoonskip in die aartappelresies!

Matthys Pretorius (voor) het die rondte van die sakresies gewen!

Toutrek is nie vir sissies nie!

Rustenburg DBV spanlede van links: Suenell van der Walt (links) en Lorrain van der Merwe.

Barry Grobler en Charlotte Marx by die Beauty for Ashes juwele stalletjie.

Die kleinspan het die poppekas terdeë geniet!

Chloe Nienaber in haar gemak op een van Rietfontein Valley Horse Trails se perde.

Pure perde pret vir Danmarié Meyer!
